Volume Sixteen

Foreword

From the quarried ore of this college year we have endeavored to refine the simple pleasures of daily life, the high lights of hilarity, the fulfilments of ambition, our friendships—and weld them into a fairy gift whose brightness will grow dim only when memories fail.

Dedication

As an expression of our sense of loss in the death of a faithful friend whose genuine interest in our college was demonstrated during seventeen years of unstinting service as a trustee, whose progressive policies were influential in expanding our school, whose unostentatious generosity and personal interest in our faculty and students won our love, we dedicate this book to the memory of

The College

College Song

We raise our voices; let them swell
In a chorus loud and strong;
The rolling hills send back the sound
Of our triumphant song,
For in one great unbroken band
With loyal hearts and true,
Your daughters stand, and hand in hand
Sing, college dear, to you.

Our college days run swiftly by
And all too soon we part;
But in the years that are to come
Deep graven on each heart
Our motto, "Service," will remain,
And service we will do,
And as we serve, our hearts will turn,
O college, dear, to you.

Dear Alma Mater, strong and great,
We never shall forget
The gratitude we owe to you—
A never-ending debt;
All honor to your name we give,
And love we pledge anew,
Unfailing loyalty we bring,
O college, dear, to you.

SONG

To thee, O Lavender and White,
Our high desires we bring,
And pledging now to keep them bright,
We start our journeying.

We give our Alma Mater, too,
Our loyalty while we live.
Think not the class of '28
Shall take and never give.

Now may its royal purple sheen
Inspire to greater deed;
May its pure white our hearts keep clean,
As we follow where it leads.

CHORUS

As it unfolds its colors fair,
The Lavender and White,
So we set forth to do and dare
And keep its colors bright.

Class Poem

Poised and straight we stand with face uplifted
Like a runner's in the still of morning.
Brought by time one moment into timelessness,
With infinity's white wind against us,
We stand with strength and courage in our heart.
For we are filled with beauty, not born of
Days' and weeks' sure marking through four years.
This beauty knows no time, for it is made
Of loneliness and chill, and friendship-fire
And warmth of finger-tips touched in the night,
And color of remembered sunsets, flung
Beyond your pines and hillward to the west;
And shining of your naked trees in rain.
With straightness of your chiseled pines we stand
One moment, strong with beauty we have known.

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

B. S. Physical Education

Adelphian; Orchesus (3, 4).

March 8

You are positive, active, critical and determined. Your inherent ability shows a prolific imagination and strong intellect, plus a "four-square" subjective power. Socially, you have the gift of a hostess, which gives you a great love of popularity and good standing in society. In personality radiation you are poised, dramatic, but sensitive. Vocationally, your mission in life is to direct and help people to find their particular placement in life. Your ability, vocationally, is shown to be that of leader or promoter of ideas, plans and methods for obtaining money for the establishment of schools, studios and charitable organizations. You should study social science.

MINNIE W. ALLGOOD

A. B. Chemistry

Cornelian; Spanish Club (2); Botany Club (2); Chemistry Club (3); Secretary and Treasurer of Chemistry Club (4).

March 4

Love of great attainments in education and adaptation to journalism is quite marked in your Houses. Inherently, you are shown to have a strong and persistent will, and not inclined to work under others. Your intellectuality is marked for abstruse subjects in general. In personality radiation you are psychic and sensitive and not easily understood, but the more discriminating will judge you as being very analytical and quite a disciplinarian. Vocationally, your mission in life is to inaugurate peace, temperance and insight into the minds and hearts of those of your world. Your ability, vocationally, is to travel and assemble your interesting adventures into travelogue series for lecture, platform work, or publications.

June 9

You are shown to have a restless, anxious and studious mind. Your inherent ability endows you with constructive aspirations, plus the controlling influence of an educated will, which should facilitate you in study and research and enable you to make great attainments in life. In personality radiation you are characteristically lovable, conscientious and humanitarian. Vocationally, your mission in life is to show, by example, how to lay up treasures, for providential reasons, in all avenues relating to home, social, or business spheres. Your ability, vocationally, shows a love for the study of Nature, anatomy, physiology and hygiene. You should be a teacher of Eurhythmy.

ANNABEL ARDREY

FORT MILL, S. C.

A. B. English

Adelphian; Proctor; French Club; Education Club.

September 9

Your perceptive faculties endow you with strong powers of observation. Your inherent ability gives you analytical attunement. You are usually free, on the plane of subjective desire, from sensationalism, and lean toward the more solid and philosophical reasonings. In personality radiation you are artistic, creative and enterprising. Vocationally, your mission in life is to write on philosophical and scientific subjects, in order to give a message to those who need your influence. In ability, vocationally, the material side of your nature is capable of creating a dissatisfaction with old business and social conditions, and tends toward establishing the new. Your sphere is in the fine arts.

CELESTE ALICE ARMFIELD

MONROE, N. C.

A. B. English

Adelphian.

November 5

You are endowed with a mind that is very versatile and active in all directions. Your inherent ability shows depth of understanding, and this innate power should make you a vigilant student all your life. It is more than likely that you are not disposed to accept or follow any system of education that is unpopular, yet you are active, executive and aspiring in all other directions. In personality radiation you are circumspect in your external life and habits. Vocationally, your mission in life is to elevate logically the good qualities of body and spirit in self and others. Your ability, vocationally, is in the spheres of science and art.

SARA HENLEY ASHCRAFT

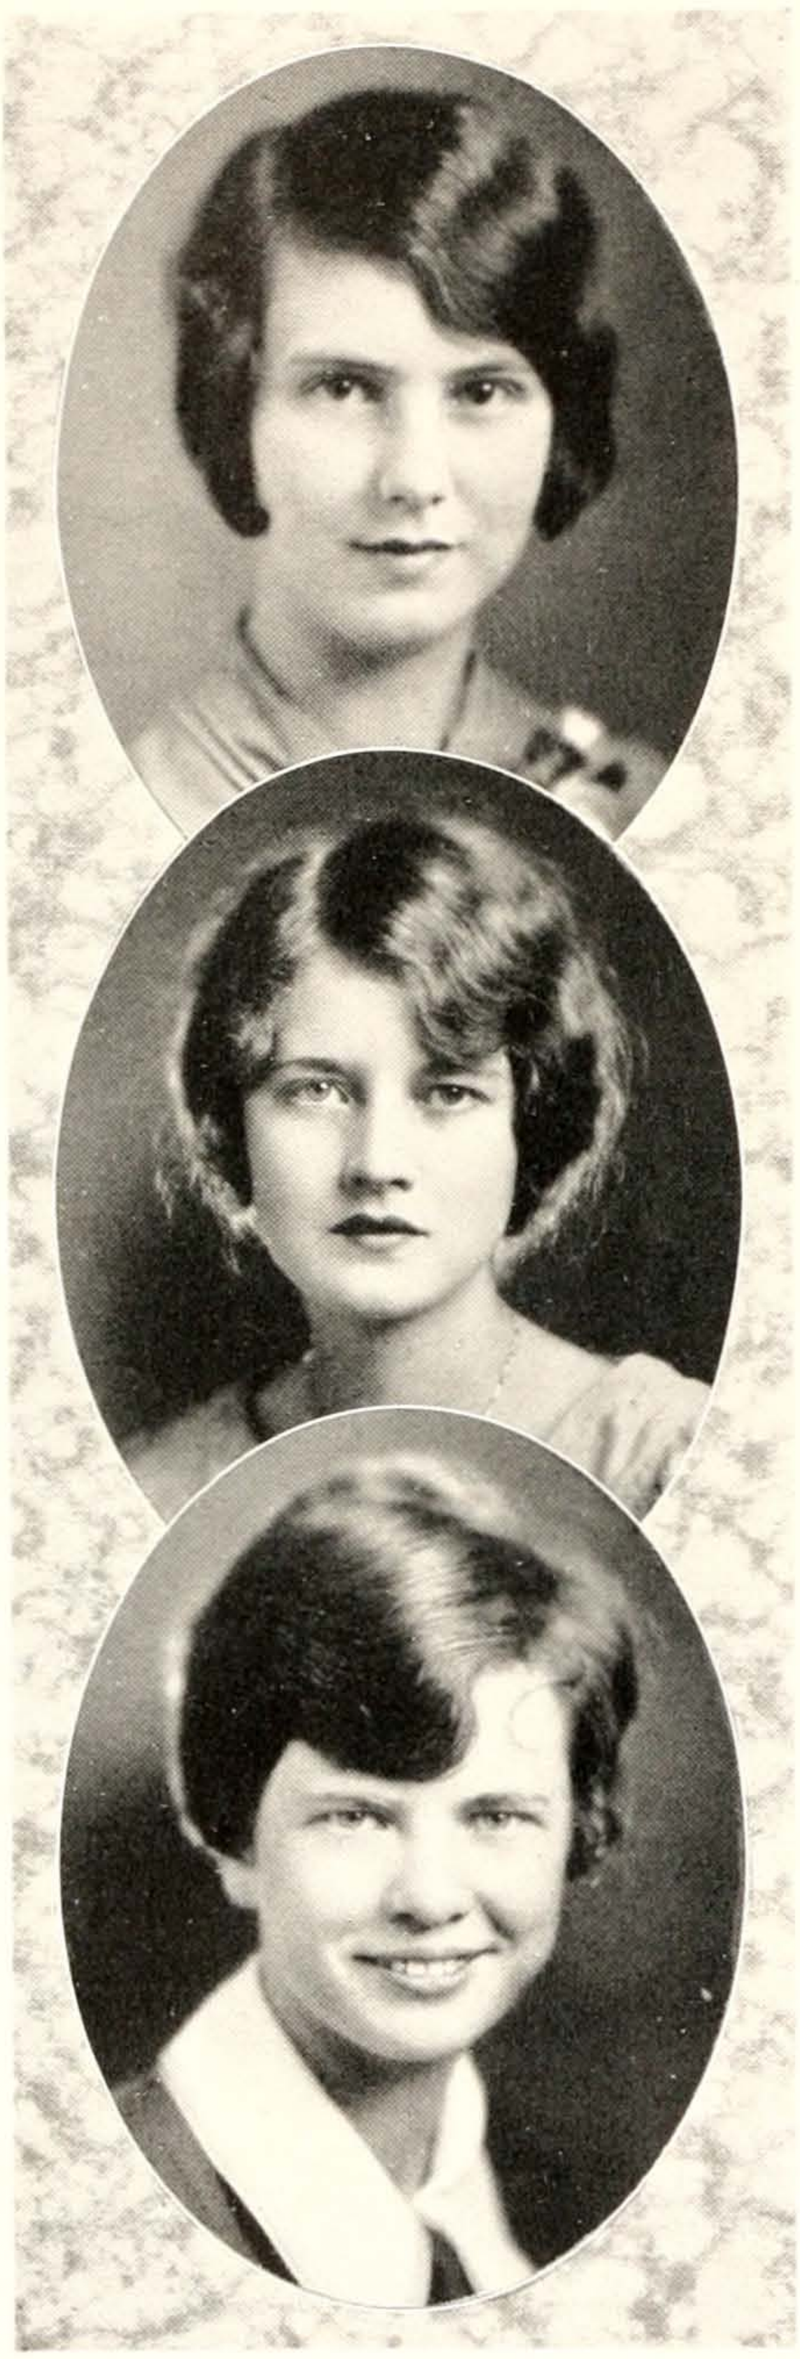
MONROE, N. C.

A. B. Education

Cornelian.

November 11

You are active, positive, versatile and critical, with a disposition to self-sufficiency through the inherent ability of high-visioning and natural wisdom. You do not like to serve, but desire to be in positions of control. In personality radiation you are creative and free. Vocationally, your mission in life is inspirational endeavor, and you can be successful in any business or profession reaching into many countries. Your ability, vocationally, fits you to select literature, law or medicine as your professional career. Literary pursuits are in the lead.



GRACE THELMA ASHWORTH

ASHEBORO, N. C.

A. B. Education

Cornelian; House Vice-President (3).

July 9

You are governed by your intuitions and feelings. Your inherent ability is that of spiritual vision and intuitional reaction. Constructive guidance and education in the practical uses of life are essential to your health and happiness; otherwise, unexplainable fancies could affect you in daily life. In personality radiation you are positive and magnetic. Vocationally, your mission in life is to help and heal others through your deep insight into and understanding of life. Your ability, vocationally, is to cultivate your voice for singing or dramatic expression, and you could select from any one of the fine arts.

CYNTHIA DUNN BAGBY

KINGSTON, N. C.

A. B. Education

Dikean; Education Club (4).

December 31

You are energetic, proud and courageous. Your inherent ability shows creative ability and the love of knowledge in whatever direction you may be the most acquisitive. Harmony is most essential to you in your friendships and domestic life. In personality radiation you are refined, reserved and ethical. As time passes on, you will have a strong inclination toward hygienic diet. Vocationally, your mission shows that you would be especially successful along religious lines. Your ability, vocationally, is that of a teacher, with a desire to instruct children.

LUCY TAYLOR BAIRD

OXFORD, N. C.

A. B. English

Dikean; Class Treasurer (2); Baseball (2, 3, 4); Hockey (3).

June 10

On the plane of inherent ability, your power shows strong imaginative qualities, indicating that you are highly sensitive to color, harmony and sound. Your mission in life is to have utilitarian ideas, and to be applied with the realm of artistic expression. In personality radiation you are frank, loyal and independent. You should be interested in the study of geology and chemistry, as these studies afford much for your investigative mind and active body. Your ability, vocationally, gives an inclination toward public life, speaking, writing and musical lines.

EVELYN BRAINARD BANGERT

October 12

Your inherent ability, as found through Scorpio, with the Moon in Leo, designates a talent for the active and creative arts, and, coupled with this power, you are endowed with energy, understanding and activity in financial matters. You have mechanical ability, but are not disposed to labor with your hands. In personality radiation your love of law and order gives you an air of being combative, but if this attitude were rightly interpreted, it would stand for a strong instinct for defending or taking care of helplessness in the young and the old. Vocationally, your mission in life is to create, organize, and express for the direct benefit of domestic and social spheres. Your ability, vocationally, is inspirational expression in public or political life.

DAILEY PRISCILLA BARKER

MILTON, N. C.

B. S. Home Economics

Dikean.

December 28

Your ideas of intellectual attainment are high, and you will always have a good deal of egotism and self-illumination to support you in every walk of life. Your inherent ability is that of the builder in the material and spiritual worlds. Your innate power is well marked and gives you an aversion to the limitations of law, rule or custom. In personality radiation you vibrate to artistic tendencies. Vocationally, your mission in life is to create practical ideals and then execute them for the edification of others. Your ability, vocationally, is good for making money, especially along the lines of creative designing or music.

VIRGINIA AGNES BARKER

ASHEBORO, N. C.

A. B. Mathematics

Adelphian; Mathematics Club (3, 4); Education Club (4).

February 22

Your power through subconscious understanding creates in you a great love of knowledge and disposition to be useful. Inherently, you are an inspirational idealist. Your mission in life is to encourage your love for the spiritual and follow philosophical and metaphysical research and the study of causes. This spiritual vision can be turned into practical channels, such as foresight in business, or in whatever direction your mind may lead. In personality radiation you are the individualist, with a few minor eccentricities to be noted. In ability, vocationally, you should incline toward business life in music and art.

A. B. Romance Languages

Dikean; House of Representatives (1); French Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (2, 3, 4); Educational Club (4); Honor Roll (3).

August 24

You love the true and the beautiful, and delight in the bountiful rays of the sun. Night-time is not pleasant or beneficial to your health and happiness. Your inherent ability is representative of accurate intuitions and your mental power facilitates rapid decisions. In personality radiations you are electric rather than magnetic. Your mission in life shows that you are usually called upon for considerable self-sacrifice, which is given uncomplainingly. Your ability, vocationally, gives a great liking for refined and tasty food, yet a strong inclination toward hygienic outlines in diet, which shows that your field of expression is in things pertaining to household arts and domestic science.

VIRGINIA RANDOLPH BATTE

A. B. History

Dikean; Freshman Commission (1); Proctor (1); Spanish Club (1, 2); Sophomore Commission (2); Vice-President of Class (2); International Relations Club (3, 4); Class Soccer Team (3); Honor Roll (2, 3); Dikean Marshal (3); Junior-Senior Toaster (3); Dikean President (4).

January 30

You are shown to have a keen conventional sense of right and wrong; an active humanitarian nature and adaptation to public speaking and religious callings. Inherently, you have the gathered wisdom to understand political economy. Your affections are strong and you love with a remarkable degree of constancy. In inherent power, you are more interested in the law and truth of science and philosophy than in the practical application. In personality radiation you are capable of being, externally, sweet, kind and tranquil, but inner forces show that your mind is inflexible, the will firm, and you will continue to the end of any proposed achievement in spite of all obstacles. Your mission in life is to be patient in labor. Vocationally, your powers contribute to every department of mechanical enterprise and art.

MARGARET ELIZABETH BEAM

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

A. B. Chemistry

Cornelian; French Club (1, 2); Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4); Proctor (3); Freshman Commission (1).

January 26

Your inherent ability gives you the power to control others, even when they are in a state of excitement. You are somewhat self-determined, yet your planets counteract much of the sensitiveness in your nature. Your mission in life is to pioneer and travel, and to learn how to keep your soul free and safe on all shores. In personality radiation you are constructively inspiring, but with people who are not "in tune" with your forces, you sometimes create misunderstandings and even quarrels. Vocationally, you have talent that should be directed into the sphere of public life, as it inclines you to the theatre and other places of artful expression, where you meet the public.

RUTH BELLAMY

ENFIELD, N. C.

A. B. English

Aletheian; French Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (2, 3, 4); Proctor (2); House Vice-President (4); College Chorus (2, 3, 4); "Carolinian" reporter (2); Dance Drama (3); Orchesus (4).

November 5

The instinct to conceal all deep emotions is very strong, yet outwardly you are very genial and agreeable. You are particularly talkative and perhaps merry when especially desirous of concealing the fact that you have been very strongly moved by mental worry or physical pain. Your inherent powers are indicative of financial reckoning and executive ability. In personality radiation your aspiring and artistic nature represents exclusive and sometimes exotic tastes and expressions. Your mission in life is to exercise your kind and sympathetic nature and bring harmony and love into the lives of others. Your ability, vocationally, is especially good in anything pertaining to words, writing and foreign languages. Your versatile mind should delight in scientific and collegiate studies.

MARTHA FLETCHER BIGGS

ROCKINGHAM, N. C.

B. S. Home Economics

Cornelian; French Club (2, 3); Chemistry Club (3, 4); Home Economics Club (3, 4); President Home Economics Club (4); Student Hostess (4); Critic Cornelian Society (4).

September 19

Your mind is very fine and discriminating in all departments of your life's interests. You are prone to act from the interior, or solar plexus, through the external and reasoning faculties, which gives you rather a materialistic tendency and the desire to live in, and enjoy, the externalities of life. Your inherent ability counteracts some of this tendency, as it gives you the power to combine the intuitions with the reasoning faculties. In personality radiation you appear notional to those who do not understand that there is pure gold in your mental "make-up." Your mission in life is to show courage in adversity. Vocationally, you have a particular aptitude for the active arts, plus an attunement to poetry, novel writing and chemistry.

NORMA RAY BLACK

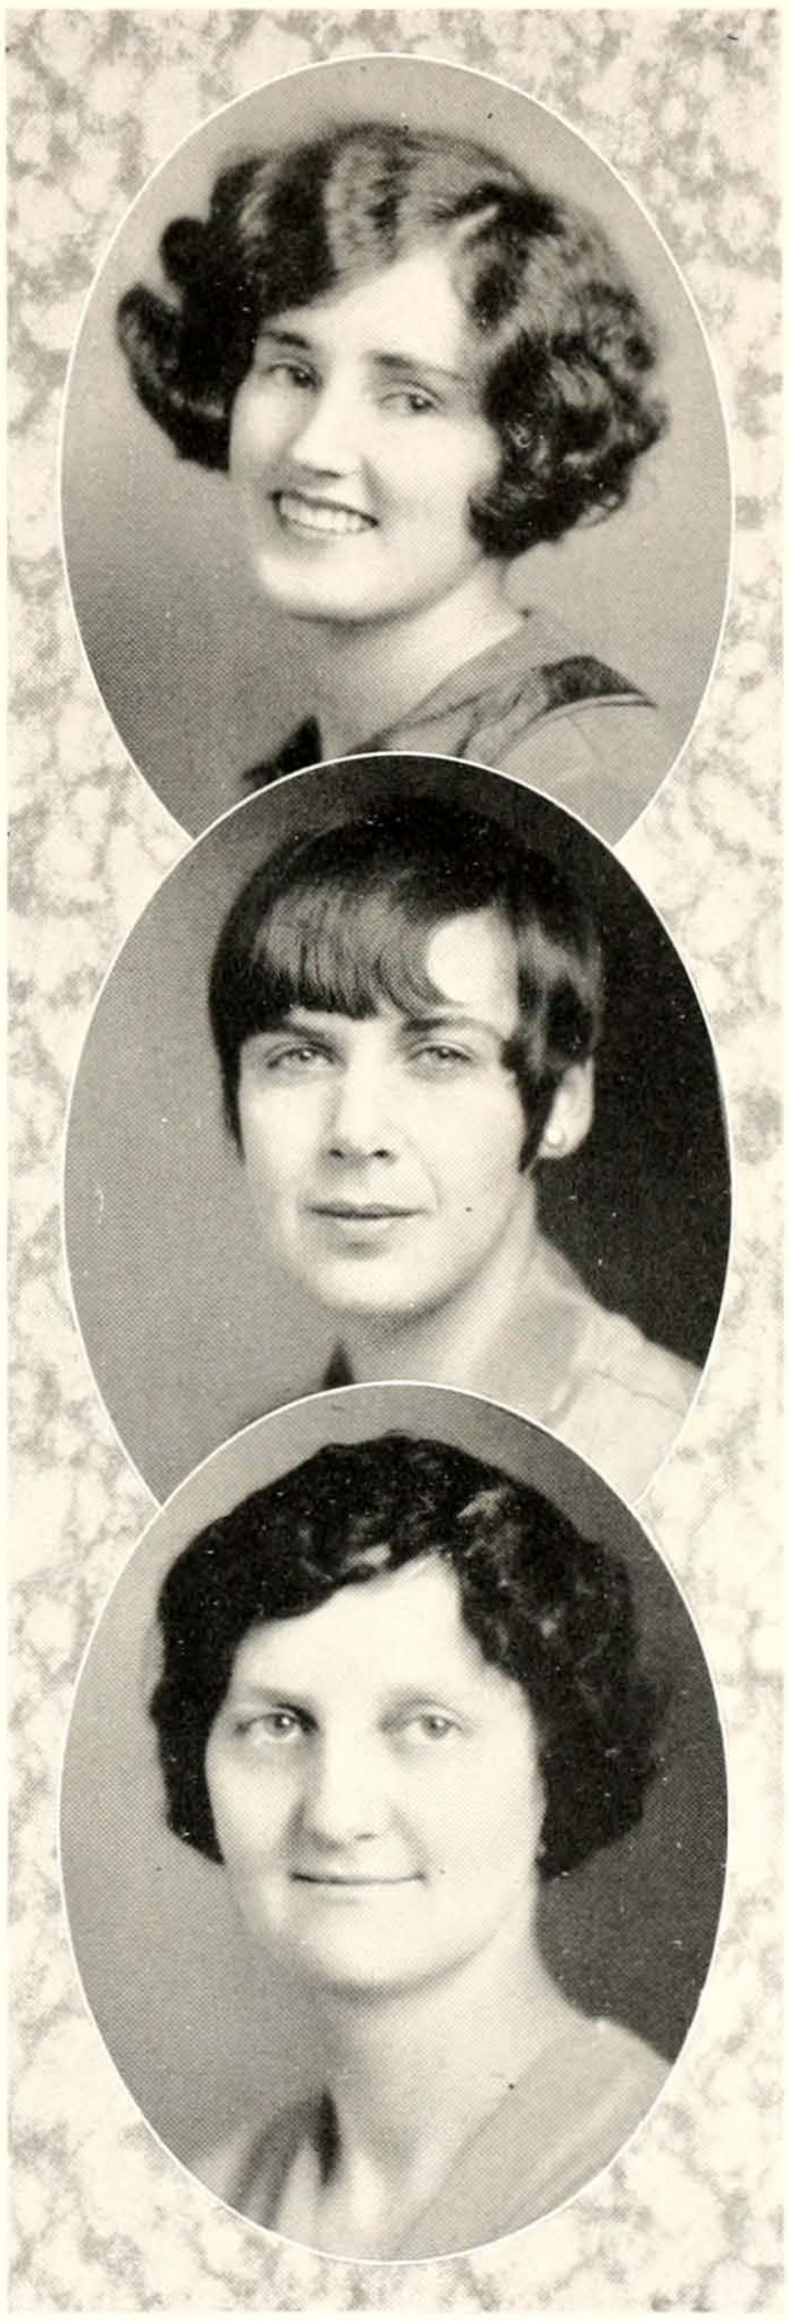
CROSSNORE, N. C.

B. S. M. Voice

Dikean; College Chorus; German Club; Phoenix Club.

August 9

If you believe a thing is right or wrong, you are as immovable as it is possible to be. You are kind and noncombative, but very persistent. Inherently, your power is shown to be that of a controller in the realm of science and wisdom. Your spiritual revealment comes to you through prophetic dreams and strong intuitional "gatherings." Your mission in life is to inject inspiration and enthusiasm into educational lines and human betterment. In personality radiation, with mental nature predominating, you have the prerogatives of a zealous worker along the lines of new departures in the culture of mind and body. Vocationally, your ability should direct you into the channels of medical courses and art.



MARY ELIZABETH BLAKE

WILLARD, N. C.

B. S. Home Economics

September 4

Your hobby could be the study of medicinal qualities of plants, as Virgo in Pices endows you with a love for flowers, the arrangement of gardens, and discrimination and appreciation of perfumes and their manufacture. Your mission in life is to be a willing helper to humanity. It is more than likely that you will retain your youth for a long period. In personality radiation you are shown to have a great pride of appearance, and to be cognizant of custom and conventionality. In ability, vocationally, your mechanical and ideal characteristics tend to increase your understanding of grace, beauty and muscular action, thereby giving you a special tendency toward sculpture.

FRANCES LOUISE BOBBITT

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

A. B. Spanish

Dikean; Queen's College (1, 2); Spanish Club (3, 4); French Club (4); Tennis (3, 4).

October 4

Libra, with the Moon in Gemini, tends toward high aspirations; gives ability in the arts and mechanics, also in mathematics, and some inclination toward dramatic speaking and interpretation. You have a quick, artistic brain and a mechanical skill for draughtsmen's craft. Your mission in life is to be interested constructively in religious matters and in assisting others to see the Light. In personality radiation you are spiritually and materially helpful, but can become impassively impersonal when your sympathies wane. Vocationally, your intellectual ability and nature qualifies you for teaching or for platform work along the lines of scientific and scholastic endeavor.

March 2

You have a repressed nature and are frequently repressed by circumstances. Inherently, you belong in an official position, such as mediator, hostess, or diplomatic officer in clubs and society. You have inherent ability along the line of writing, speaking and appreciating Nature. Your love of mystery gives you a fondness for the new and unusual in things and people. Mentally, your forces form a harmonious link between the intuitions and reasoning faculties. Your mission in life is to increase and develop your powers of ideality, or inherent ability and love of beauty. The general tendencies are toward a public life. In personality radiation you show the poise, patience and geniality that is attendant to public life rather than to domestic life. In ability, vocationally, you should be successful in musical compositions, especially those of dance music.

August 9

Your inherent power represents creative ability; therefore, you should choose a path of original or creative effort of a public type. In personality radiation, through natural leadership, you cause others to put responsibility on you. Do not slight these responsibilities, for it is your mission in life to have people learn to depend on your judgment, and help them by being ready to take the initiative with and for them. Vocationally, you have executive ability that should be used to advantage in obtaining leads for your talents in the spheres of singing, playing or lecturing.

Aletheian; Education Club (3, 4); Y. W. C. A. (2, 3).

July 23

You should be very fond of travel and people. You are, inherently, clever, generous, a natural healer and usually fortunate in regard to money. Your mission in life is to exercise your beautiful characteristics, especially the philanthropic side of your nature. In personality radiation some of your more peculiar traits are self-confidence followed by timidity; dauntlessness, followed by depression. Your vocational work is to recognize your strong maternal love and show a corresponding care in providing for and protecting those less fortunate than yourself. You could do this through your fitness for the study and practice of medicine. Avocationally, you are inclined to be a novelist.

You forgive easily, but you cannot forget, and can be quickly saddened by mental wounds. Love of sad or dreamy music is noted in your vibratory forces. Strong power of concentration is another one of your attributes. Your inherent ability shows that you are inventive and literary. In personality radiation you are cool in action and unsympathetic with the petty and inactive types. You are a pioneer and leader, and one sees a love of the liberal arts, literature, history and drama in your subjective consciousness. Your mission in life is to be extremely interested in the affairs of others without interfering with their plan of progression and inspiration. Vocationally, you have the ability and determination to become distinguished in music, art, singing or literary lines of expression. Avocationally, you are shown to have before you the highest possible attainments in the medical profession.

August 30

You, inherently, have very high ideals and intuitional powers which often amount to presentiments and ability to make spiritual discoveries. You have the faculty of acquiring money, but generally lose it through humanitarian projects or through sacrifice to ideals. Your personality radiation is usually sunny, hopeful and very gracious. Your mission in life is to recognize and reward faithful service. You have a very active mind, a responsive temperament, and an uncommon readiness in the correct use of words, yet likelihood of speaking too rapidly at times. Avocationally, you are inclined to be artistic, and to love the beautiful, with aptness for education, and some desire for public life in the avenues of humanitarian endeavor. Vocationally, your gifts should incline you to the theatre and other places of amusement for appreciation and expression.

March 23

Inherently, you are a better writer than speaker. You have a clear, reasoning brain and a nature calculated to be governed by feeling rather than direction of the will. At times you procrastinate and cannot be hurried, as your emotional nature must take time and act on the inspiration of the moment rather than by routine or dictation. You are a lover of justice—arbitrator—diplomat. You should travel the world extensively. A career that is related to philosophy and art is your vocational calling. Avocationally, you belong to the literary world of expression and you should become distinguished in this line. In personality radiation you are dual in expression in that you are artistic and practical. Your mission in life is to originate some new way of writing or studying harmony for the benefit of children.

B. S. Physical Education

Aletheian; Class Cheer Leader (3); College Cheer Leader (4); Class Basketball Team (2, 4); Soccer Team (4); Education Club (4).

August 21

Inherently, Mercury in Virgo relates your intuitive faculties to Nature, mainly of a physical character. With Venus in Gemini, your love can be easily turned away from domestic avenues into intellectual and educational spheres. In personality radiation you are interesting, unusual, serious in temperament and fond of peace, reflection and meditation. More than likely, through artistic work, you will be brought into high and influential positions. Avocationally, you have talent for penetrating mysteries and deciphering intrigue in national affairs. Vocationally, your poetic qualities should have expression.

A. B. Education

Dikean; Y. W. C. A. (1, 3, 3, 4); Mathematics Club (3, 4); Education Club (4).

August 15

In personality radiation you are transcendental and idealistic. With Mars in Aquarius, you have, consciously or unconsciously, a love for the motto, "The world is my family." It turns your personal nature away from the local spheres of every-day life to the public, giving you a more impersonal attitude in mind and body, and militating, somewhat, against conjugality. Your inherent ability shows marked spiritual and material powers, but your manner of handling your intuitive findings is purely psychic and on the national plane. Vocationally, your power is outlined as triune in color and has, characteristically, a love for beauty and display. With your business and organizing ability, you would make a good executive in the creative world.

FAY COLE CAVENESS

COLERIDGE, N. C.

A. B. English

Adelphian; Davenport (1, 2); Proctor (3); Y. W. C. A.

October 22

Inherently, you are governed almost wholly by your intuitions and cosmical feelings. In ability, you are an inspirational teacher. As time goes on you will have a strong leaning towards religion without creed. You are shown to have clear spiritual vision and foresight in business, or in whatever direction your interests may lead. In personality radiation your personal influences contribute to pride and conventionality. Your strong will power accounts for the fact that you listen to advice, but do as you please. Because of your tact and diplomacy, you would do well to ally yourself with politics or clubs dealing with civic interests. You are idealistic, but live on that plane through your subconscious mind. Vocationally, you are the revelator of practical ideals. Avocationally, you belong in the psychic, inventive and artistic spheres of expression.

CATHERINE LOUISE CHERRY

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

A. B. Education

House of Representatives; French Club; Spanish Club; Proctor; Education Club.

February 14

Inherently, you are adapted to mental rather than physical labor. Aquarius, with the Moon in Pisces, gives you a high sense of honor and integrity of character, but imparts a degree of anxiety concerning your career and success in life. Your inherent ability gives you an analytical and critical power which leads your mind into the minutiae and details of mental analysis. Mercury in Libra gives power to your perceptive faculties. In personality radiation you are tolerant, inspirational and impersonal. Your mission in life is to bring spiritual truths to the minds of the disconsolate. Vocationally, you are an artist of the inspirational type. Avocationally, you would make a good chemist and an experimentalist in science, or any occupation in which secrecy and dexterity are required.

MARY LOIS CLARY

CHINA GROVE, N. C.

Adelphian; Junior French Club (3); Education Club (4).

September 6

Virgo, with the Moon in Aries, endows you with special mental strength, firmness and stability. This polarity intensifies the power of sight and shows that, without consideration for your eyes they may be seriously strained and weakened. Your inherent ability gives you keenness of perception plus a lively sense of the ridiculous, especially when mirth is present and active. In personality radiation you are interesting, active and changeful. You have a proud spirit, yet you are democratic. You are exceedingly sensitive and have strong likes and dislikes through your psychic attunement. Your mission in life is to travel. Vocationally, you are the cosmical mother, as Venus and Cancer concentrate a love-nature upon home, family and children. Avocationally, you are exceptionally talented in the plastic and dramatic arts.

LOUISE CLIFFORD

STATESVILLE, N. C.

A. B. English

Aletheian; Mitchell College (1, 2); Spanish Club (3, 4).

July 10

Inherently, your power is shown to be strong in vision, revelation and inspiration. Your mission in life is to inspire others through your gift of self-illumination. In personality radiation you are assertive, poised and influential. Vocationally, your ability conduces to literary and scientific avenues of expression. You are innately sympathetic and emotional, and are greatly influenced by true friendships, but could be deeply hurt by disillusionment. You have talent for the active and creative arts, especially along the lines of dancing, music and dramatic art. In your ability, avocationally, you have the requisite mental power to be a student and teacher of home economics.

MARY ARMFIELD COE

April 2

Aries, with the Moon in Scorpio, gives you a tendency to follow the regular rules and customs of society, and of the world in general, thereby inclining your mind more to conventionalities than to origination. Your inherent ability should incline you toward a classical education, as your intellectual threshold of things ethical and spiritual. In personality radiation you are magnetic and lovable, and your mission in life is to show that you can depend on your intuitions and courage in the responsibilities of life. Vocationally, you are an organizer along the lines of the active arts. You love order, elegance and beauty. Avocationally, your knowledge and understanding would make you a teacher of parliamentary law.

META BLANCHE COLLINS

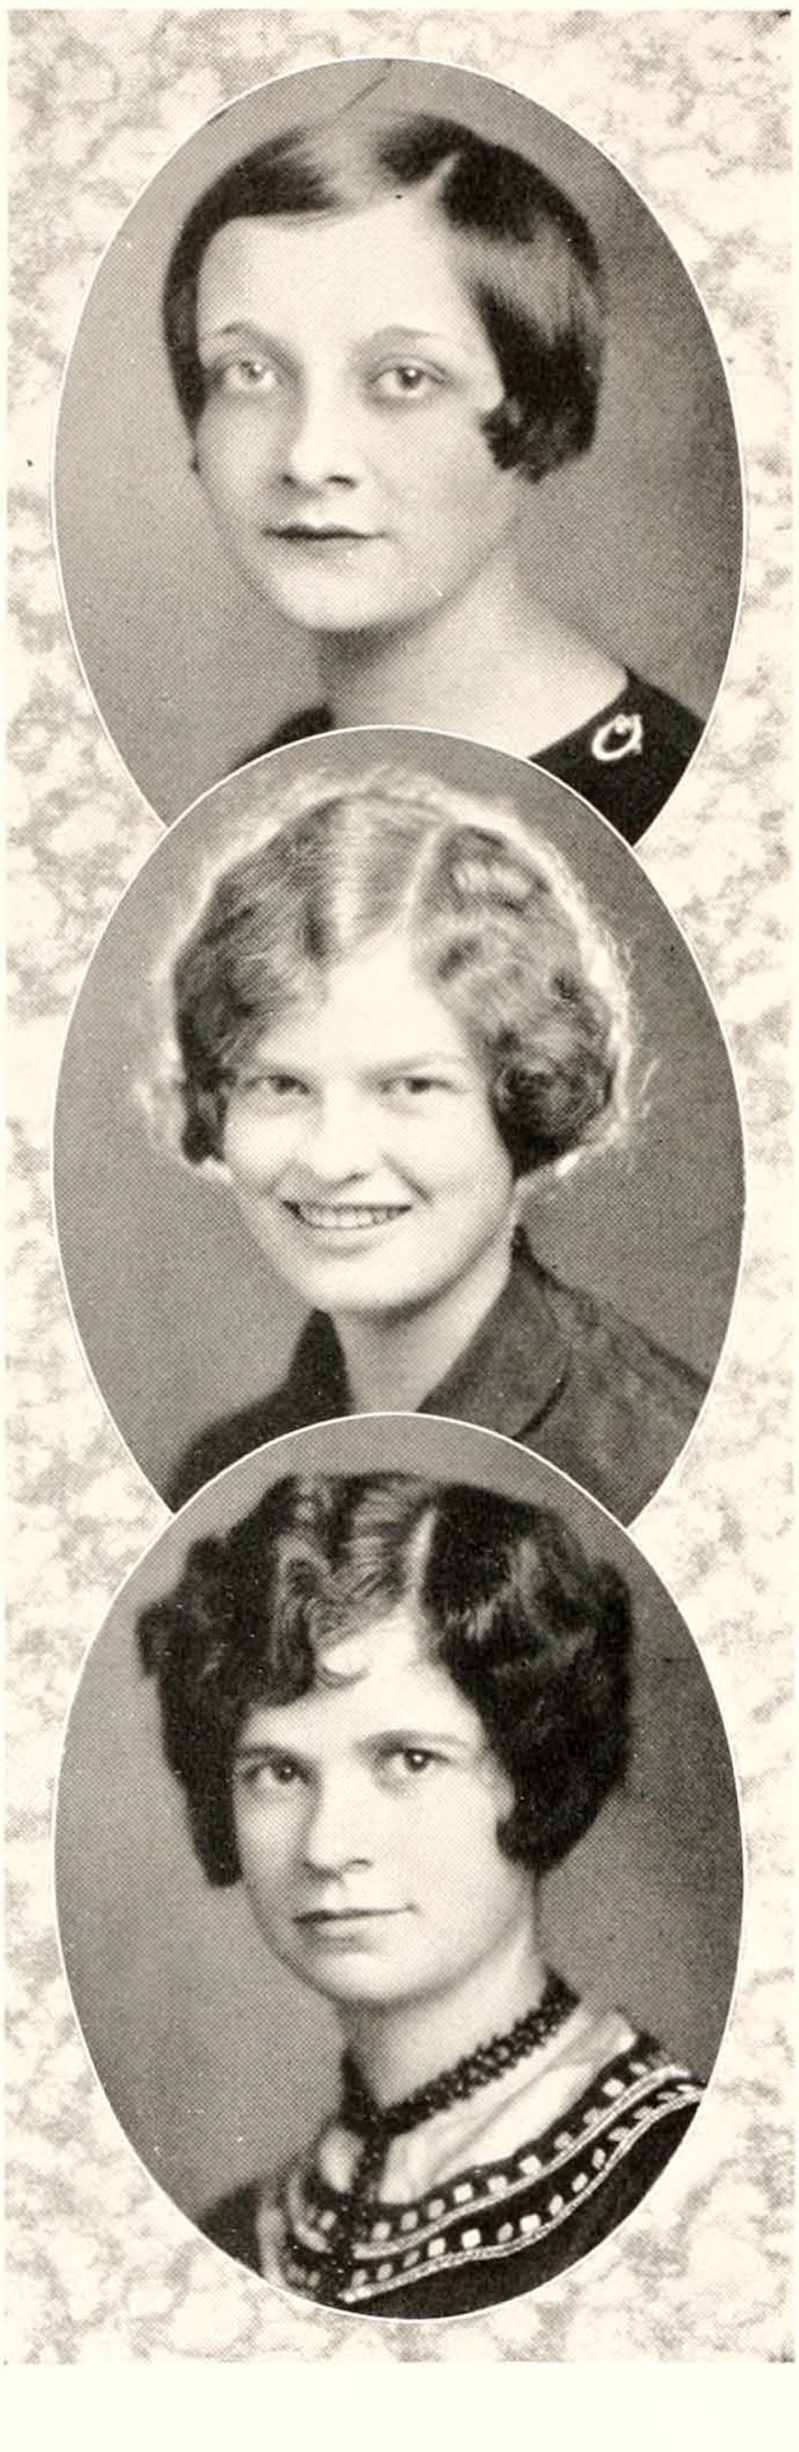
SYLVA, N. C.

B. S. M. Public School Music

Adelphian; Phoenix Club; Education Club; College Chorus.

May 29

Your inherent ability is productive of a high order of service in artistic professions. You have a tendency to be poetical and musical, and should cultivate a singing or speaking voice. You are somewhat inclined to believe in a controlling destiny, or to fear that some force may hinder your ambition and efforts. You should, therefore, adopt some worthy and constructive philosophy in order to offset this depressing fear. In personality radiation you could be most aptly described as one radiating sweetness of manner, discretion and spirituality. Your business foresight enables you to see over large mental space, and you would be efficient in handling large affairs. Vocationally, you should engage in active, inspirational arts.



MARY MOORE COON

WILSON, N. C.

A. B. English

Adelphian; Proctor (3); Junior-Senior Toaster (3); Education Club (4).

July 24

Characteristically, you are influenced through Leo, with the Moon in Gemini, by the fixed rules of life. You love to work in accordance with law, but you require that it shall be absolute and impartial. With Saturn in Libra, you are inclined to love Nature and books. Your active brain and spiritual vision enables you to visualize symbolic forms represented by air, water and birds. Your mission is to appreciate and advance the nobler things in domestic and social life, and to lecture to groups of young people on the importance and purpose of the social structure. Vocationally, you should engage in the fine arts. Avocationally, you could be interested in public affairs. In personality radiation you are lovable, but exclusive toward those who neither belong to your sphere nor relate to your interests.

Dikean; Freshman Commission (1); House of Representatives (2); Botany Club (2); Education Club (4); Dikean Corresponding Secretary (3); Dikean Vice-President (4); New Voters Club (4); Exchange Editor of "Carolinian" (3); Business Staff "Carolinian" (4).

September 26

Venus in Taurus idealizes your mind in all matters pertaining to sensations and affections. You have a love of Nature and a disposition to study its phenomena. At the twilight hours of the day, Venus in Aries produces in you a dreamy mental state, influencing you away from the practical, every-day, routine life. You should take care of your health by much attention to the diet, as Mars in Virgo could cause frequent derangement of the digestive organs. In personality radiation you are shown to be quiet, harmonious and persistent. You are tenacious in whatever you judge to be properly your duty. Your vocational work will be found in the avenues of natural science. Avocationally, your mission in life is to help others toward hygienic habits and constructive development.

CHARLOTTE GODIVA COPPAGE

February 25

Inherently, your ideal of unity, love and harmony gives you a strong inclination towards a soul union. If this is realized, it will give you a great mental impetus plus a disposition to work for the betterment of humanity. For the sake of health and happiness, you should live in the Southwest. You are inclined to be studious, and as time goes on you will climb the spiral of soul advancement by becoming interested in the study of metaphysical philosophies. In personality radiation you are active, creative and artistic. A liking for astronomy, mathematics and geometry is noted. Your mission in life is to promote the common good. Vocationally, you are a mental and physical architect, through the profession of nurse, analytical chemist, or as lecturer.

RACHEL CORDLE

GREENSBORO, N. C.

A. B. History

Cornelian; Mathematics Club (3, 4); French Club (1).

December 11

You are very decisive in everything you say and do, and you are a friend with all your being. You will always be interested in science, hygiene and self-culture. You are finely organized and strongly intuitive, having a true prophetic nature. Avocationally, you are adapted to a trade of travel where you meet the public. In personality radiation you are suave, lovable and sociable. Vocationally, you have a desire to study and deal with the finer courses in Nature and a disposition toward occult philosophies. In speaking and writing, this position gives strong metaphysical characteristics in all your thoughts and expressions. Your mission in life is to teach the laws of mind. Avocationally, you are shown to have a great love for order and beauty and a desire to engage in educational and artistic work.

EVELYN CORNELIUS

MOORESVILLE, N. C.

A. B. Education

Cornelian; Education Club (4).

December 1

Inherently, you have the ability to deal with the public. Characteristically, you are original, creative and intuitive. Your active, keen mind enables you to be a natural leader and somewhat of a reformer. Your personality radiation is, as a rule, hopeful, independent, and full of the joy of living. Mercury in Libra gives power to the perceptive faculties and frequently materialistic tendencies. In personality radiation you are lovable, but apparently impersonal. Vocationally, your power and ability contribute to the mental qualifications requisite to proficiency in the creative arts.

VIRGINIA COZART

STEM, N. C.

A. B. Sociology

January 27

You are very serious in balance of temperament, yet feeling plays an important role in your life. Inherently, you are fond of meditation and given to carefully watching every detail of things in which you are interested. Your mission in life is to organize some new activity having to do with girl scout military work. In personality radiation you become reticent in the presence of strangers, but among your friends you are the reverse. Vocationally, your ability should incline you to commercial lines, as your desire, on the path, is to civilize and nourish; therefore, you would be successful in teaching or in business connected with foods and their chemical values. Vocationally, you could be successful in literary expression.

ALICE MAE CRAIG

August 25

In inherent ability you have pronounced aptitude for study in general. Discord affects you very much. Things slip away from you. This may be through over-looking or neglecting some opportunity which presented itself. More often, however, it will occur through uncontrollable circumstances. Your mission in life is to show, by example, that you are of pure gold, and your purity will always shine through as long as your real nature prevails. In personality radiation you have artistic tastes and ideal modes of mind. In ability, vocationally, you have a practical business mind with fine mechanical intuitions; you love music, and have the ability to compose and perform. Avocationally, your power is in appreciation and imitation of Nature through the pen or brush.

LUCY MAURINE CRUMPLER

A. B. Biology

Adelphian; Botany Club (2, 3, 4); Zoology Field Club (3, 4); Education Club (3, 4).

November 1

Your inherent ability is that of a natural healer and counsellor. Your powers show that you have a strong imagination, coupled with courage and creativeness, which marks you as quite the inspirationalist. In personality radiation you are shown to be candid, usually simple and unaffected, witty, quick at repartee, and a natural leader. Your mission in life is to reach out into the cosmical centers along the lines of study and research for the direct benefit of self and others. Vocationally, your ability allies you with the study of Nature and the love of music, order and harmony. Avocationally, you are shown to have original and inventive ideas for programs having to do with plays and parties.

WILLIE RUTH CURRIN

VARINA, N. C.

A. B. English

Cornelian; French Club (2); Spanish Club (2); Proctor (2); Young Voters Club (4).

August 17

You have much internal courage and are very determined, but often impulsive. Inherently, your ability marks you as being very observant and intellectual to the degree that you can readily learn and accomplish anything to which you may apply your mind. In personality radiation you are poised, and when your planetary signs are complementary you show brilliant attributes of character. Leo, with the Moon in Cancer, gives you a clear, logical and scientific mind, with qualifications, vocationally, for a literary career. Vocationally, your wisdom and psychic attunement properly dominate your speech and writing.

MARY LOUISE DALTON

December 2

Characteristically, you are honest, fearless and generous. Your inherent ability gives you the power to learn and teach the great lesson of divine love in human relationships. In personality radiation you show a lofty sense of justice, foresight and wisdom. Avocationally, your ability could place you in callings having to do with finance or statistical work in business spheres. In ability, vocationally, you belong to the professional world of endeavor and expression, preferably as minister or teacher.

DOROTHY LEE DAVIDSON

GREENSBORO, N. C.

August 1

Jupiter's influence gives you a high regard for beauty, both in outward form and in ideas. You have a natural respect for law and religion, and you take kindly to ritual ceremony, but are liable to be bound by formalities and the conventionalities of etiquette. You have energy, enthusiasm, ardour and fidelity in your particular "make-up." Avocationally, you should employ your talents and knowledge in the spheres that have to do with beauty, harmony, imagination and ideality. In personality radiation you have a strong public personality, and you naturally attract to yourself many who have fine ideas about reform and financial movements, but without any executive ability, and who desire to use you to further their cherished dreams and schemes. Lesson: Weed out these friends who will prove of little value to you, then reach on to greater things where you can constructively help, direct, and counsel, and, in turn, be helped.

The planet that ruled your day of birth is Saturn. The best lesson that Saturn teaches is self-control, prudence, patience, chastity and thrift. In personality radiation you are of the aspiring type of mind, and in physical expression your personality expresses generosity and brotherhood. In vocational work, your forces and influences represent artistic expression of all kinds, especially designing, writing, teaching and public speaking. Your mission in life shows that one of your chief aims will be to bring about justice, even sometimes in cases where it does not directly concern you. While doing this you will feel, at times, the pangs of fear at the justice that may be awaiting you. Avocationally, you will engage in commercializing your talents or building plans for others that will engage your knowledge of finance and, incidentally, acquire wealth in return.

Saturn holds an influence over your disposition and tends to make you serious and thoughtful. In personality radiation you are reserved, distinctive, with much self-control at your command. For avocational callings, you have a good deal of practical ability and can manage things and persons ably and economically. Your distinguishing gift, on the material plane, is the ability to discriminate quickly between real and superficial things. Vocationally, you are shown to have strong musical talent, and could probably compose, if you studied seriously. Consequently, through your rising planet, Mercury, which is nearest to the Sun of any yet discovered, your genius in mental and intellectual pursuits point in the direction of art and science.

Because you were born on Tuesday, Mercury's influence has more to do with your mind than with the senses. In inherent power you have good mental ability, ingenuity and adaptability. You should be apt at speech and argument, plausible and of substantial fluency in counselling; but along with this there sometimes goes a degree of subtlety, repression, anxiety and secrecy, as well as reserve in your mental processes and external reactions. Mercury's aspects at the time of your birth may, however, modify what has been stated. In personality radiation you are strongly individualistic, with determined will, but sometimes lacking in perseverance. Your general aspects give remarkable intellectuality. Vocationally, you have the influences needed for a great healer, writer or musician. Avocationally, you like occupations that call for spontaneous, creative thought and action, for you do well that which you can do quickly, but you dislike that which drags out and becomes drudgery.

November 12

There is in you a disposition to brood over conditions, and a desire to alter, in some way, the environment in which you are placed. Consequently you should direct your forces into positive thinking channels, as your feelings, this year, 1928, are at a high tension. You are, therefore, liable to be easily affected through mental and physical reactions to the externalities of life, which would, as a result, occasion melancholia. Vocationally, there is noted an attunement to law and literature. Throughout your life, you will attend many feasts and banquets because of social aspects in your Houses. In personality radiation you are critical, interesting and diplomatic. Your inherent ability places you, avocationally, in the spheres of travel and music.

Your sign of the Zodiac is Aquarius, with Uranus as the ruling planet. This shows that you are co-operative, impersonal, cautious, active and restless. You should learn to conserve your energies. In personality radiation you have a charming naivete that is quite mystifying to those who do not know you too well. You have a great many difficulties to encounter in your life, but will rise triumphantly above them. Through your fortunate vibrations, progressive nature and self-confidence on the plane of ego, you will have much future success. Vocationally, your moral "attunement" and high-mindedness fit you for spiritual revealment through creative art.

You are interested in spiritual matters, and would be especially successful in religious endeavors. Conscience is a great factor with you in your estimate of people. You are a natural harmonizer in the lives of others, and are peaceful and tolerant of their peculiarities. You innately adore personal freedom and do not easily submit to rules and regulations. Characteristically, you are individualistic, neat and discriminating. In personality radiation you are unique and fascinating. Vocationally, you are best adapted to callings that have to do with the public, in musical lines, or organization work for charitable purposes. Your mission in life is to bring the whimsical and humorous side of your nature into expression for the sake of those who are heavily burdened.

You are under constant strain and effort. Inherently, you are shown to have a love for out-door sports, travelling, and mountain-climbing—a natural pioneer. Vocationally, good executive ability is noted. For a business or profession, therefore, you would excel in acting, or in an occupation that ministers to the education or pleasures of others. In personality radiation you vibrate a pure and true love for mankind. Avocationally, you should be at the head of some humane movement. Your mission in life is to be an adjuster, through inherent wisdom, in the lives of those about you.

In inherent ability your soul power indicates a tendency to live, inspirationally, a life of close balance on the earth plane, close to the edges of life and all its interesting phases. It shows that you are constantly making a choice of pathways in your subconscious mind, and then in your earth life, the choice of the good or the so-called evil. In personality radiation you have an excellent public appearance registration. Your mission in life is to balance high ideals and practical plans in a new, original, and progressive way for the classes. Avocationally, you would be successful in teaching or in business connected with food. Vocationally, your talents are strongly marked; one represented by the divine trinity, which stands for literature; the other one for artistic callings that would require much travel, experience and change, and the third a professional career.

You are a rapid thinker through your positive understanding, much imagination and versatile power. Being born under the influence of Venus, you are, in consequence, sensitive to love and beauty. It also strengthens your affections and makes the social side of your nature active and strong. Your disposition is hopeful and cheerful, and brings popularity and many friends. In personality radiation you are the emotional and magnetic type, with much conscientious attunement in the background. Your supreme year, or turning point in your life, enters in 1934. Vocationally, you belong to the spheres of the fine arts, and your role is self-expression through dynamic and inspirational teaching or acting. Avocationally, your influences show that you could be successful in business lines. Study constructive psychology, as some inhibition of fear is noted.

Transit of ruling sign at birth puts you into the House of Pisces, the twelfth House, with adjoining influences from the House of Gemini. This combination relates to short journeys, relatives, and affects all mental conditions, stimulating to greater thought and relationship. Yet care should be taken to offset the tendency to create trouble and so injure the interests. Your inherent ability represents positive force and a very up-lifting inspirational influence. In personality radiation you are erratic, proud-spirited, and yet definitely democratic. Vocationally and avocationally, you are a public expressionist along the lines of art and divine science.

Your inherent ability shows that you have a keen sense of color and much appreciation of painting, sculpturing and curios. In personality radiation your forces represent a soft, gentle voice of considerable power, artistic perception, broad mental vision, critical power, yet much tolerance of the other person's viewpoint. In predominant influences you most likely attract to yourself dreamers and planners; consequently, for your own advancement and self-expression, you should select with care those who have actually accomplished something, and not have the bragging "will be" types. Vocationally, your philosophical mind could be splendidly used in conjunction with your ability as a diplomat or arbitrator in both professional and business lines. Avocationally, you belong to the world of organization, and should travel in behalf of ethical reforms in business, religion, or art. You should be very original as a writer.

Your inherent ability strongly individualizes you mentally and inspirationally, showing that you are a law unto yourself through philosophical and reasoning faculties. In personality radiation, through cosmical attunement, you are a well balanced type—lovable, loyal and true. Avocationally, your mission is to choose the pathway of labor and production in order to help others. Vocationally, music and some of the household arts naturally appear in the program of your life for the sake of experience and expression. 1930 will mark a turning point in your life. This year relates you to the House of Aquarius, the eleventh House, which, in turn, means that you are concerned with friendships, hopes, trusts, and much expectance or desire.

In personality radiation, Venus, the planet of love and beauty, favors you, showing that you are interesting, active, companionable and rather fond of the society of friends and relatives. This planet signifies that you would be successful in inspirational endeavors. This sign superinduces, in you, good taste and a love of beauty, fine surroundings, clothes, ornaments, decorations, and the ability to align these tastes with interior decorating or musical composition. In every-day life, the danger is that you take on peoples' worries too easily and too extensively. Be sure that you can help a person before you lead them on to become dependent on you. Vocationally, you would be especially inspired and helpful along any line of social or humanitarian lines, or even at the head of a school of philosophy.

November 14

You are ardent, positive and impetuous. You are a lover of freedom and independence, and cannot endure unjust restraint, confinement, or delay. Inherently, your power stands for positive self-expression in the creative fields of universal truth. You have much self-confidence and determination. Beware of being too head-strong, aggressive and self-willed, if you are so inclined. Withal this dominant soul power, you are highly sensitive. You are intuitive, but your intellectual forces invariably cause you to analyze yourself out of your "flash-conscious" revealments. Be tolerant of your spiritual gifts and "listen in" to the voice of the higher self for strength and guidance. Vocationally, you have a talent for law. Avocationally, your forces are representative of a clever speaker or writer. Your mission in life is to attract those who will look to you as an intellectual leader in the practical things of life.

This year, 1927, is not to be altogether a fortunate one for you so far as worldly ambition and realizations go, and you are liable to make mistakes at this time, especially with regard to those who are of a lower social standing, which will cause you annoyance. The House of Virgo shows that in this year the social side of your nature is very active and responsive. The year 1934 will mark a turning point in your life. You are sensitive, lovable and loyal. Your inherent ability endows you with versatile power in spiritual realms. Avocationally and vocationally, you should choose a destiny in this life that is capable of leading you, through self-expression, to the heights in some artistic unfoldment. It is a path of some hardships and disappointments in the working out of the great plan, but it is also the path of great rewards and a steady, even-flowing life in the spheres of the active and creative arts.

Inherently, the domestic and home-loving side of your nature is strong, and you are drawn towards cosmical interests on the spiritual plane. Your imagination is well developed, and plays a large part in your life. Inner forces show that feeling and sensation are active with you, and in certain cycles of your life, you are likely to change and fluctuate in your moods from day to day. Avocationally, you are to deal with affairs in a capable manner, as you find them. Vocationally, you could adapt yourself to a variety of subjects according to your educational advantages; and to domestic life, business, teaching, or practical sciences and their application. Artistically, the plastic arts are prominent in your registrations. The Moon affects your personality and shows that you are electro-magnetic.

Inherently, you are just. Your viewpoint is broad and liberal, and your knowledge wide. In personality radiation you may be popular in an individualistic way. Your mission in life is to guide your affairs and the affairs of others into better channels for your and their soul evolvement and material advancement. You should take to heart the truth that nothing is insignificant which promises peace, progress and pleasure to others. You are apt to be undecided and uncertain in your ways, expending much effort sometimes before you are quite certain what it is you are after. Vocationally, you belong in the intellectual spheres of endeavor.

Though Mars ruled your day of birth, another planet of a less aggressive nature was rising, which gives you a more rounded consciousness, more sympathy, and less bearing on the domineering side of your nature. You will always seem to naturally understand the law of non-resistance, and for this reason you save yourself a great deal of labor and trouble, as well as being a great comfort to those about you. You have the power to adapt yourself to many different temperaments and the ability to see almost any question from another's point of view. In inherent ability, you are a teacher, finisher, and creator. Inherently, therefore, you are capable in anything you undertake. Your path in life shows possibilities in the lines of service to humanity.

In soul consciousness, your inherent ability represents divine law and the acknowledgment thereof. You have, therefore, the power of command in your subjective consciousness. Jupiter indicates that you have come in this vehicle of selfhood to gain social esteem and success. You are a practical idealist, and your mission in life is to inspire, instruct and counsel the masses. Your motto should be "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." Vocationally, you belong in a public career in the spheres of art or science. Avocationally, you have strong attunement to financial matters, but you should be careful of acquiring over-confidence in yourself, as the tendency is to speculate. In personality radiation you are more inclined to be impersonal than personal in your different spheres of expression.

Mars, the "god of war," was in the ascendant at your birth. This indicates that you have a great deal of positive force at your command, which, if properly utilized, will make you executive and ambitious. To be happy, you should be "full of business," and feel that you are conquering and overcoming obstacles. Avoid taking offence too easily, or having the dramatic and tragic side of life too frequently associated in your thoughts or expressions. Mars in this position adds strength and endurance to the constitution, gives you splendid recuperative power, but makes you subject to fevers and sudden illness. Vocationally, you belong to the world of scientific research and investigation.

The Moon largely controls your personality and early environment. The ancient Persians called it the "Measurer," and it is found to indicate minor incidents, circumstances, changes, and all actions of daily life. Through the senses, the external world furnishes food for the mind and may account to you for your gift of versatility. Inherently, you are a natural healer and counsellor. Vocationally, you have talent for either the profession of law or medicine. You will attract to yourself those who do things and who delight to serve. Your power or reciprocation lies in your desire to make use of your natural wisdom and to serve as a counsellor to those who need to understand the principles of law on the spiritual or material planes. 1933 will mark a turning point for you. Characteristically, your forces show, through inherent registration, that you desire to perfect plans and purposes in this vehicle of selfhood. You should have a decoration (some artistic cultivation—music or painting), as it would form a channel of expression for your religious sense. Intellectual lines of work will bring you good remuneration. You have particular attunement to scientific lines of interest and investigation, biology being one of them. In personality radiation you are seemingly very impersonal, but very tenacious in attachments, although not demonstrative. Vocationally, your influences, astrologically, represent the architect of perfect form; therefore, in art, science or literature, you are here to perfect some work laid out for you under God's plan.

One of your noticeable characteristics in personality radiation is an inquiring expression of countenance and a shrewd and somewhat fascinating expression of the eye. Back of this facial expression is brain power that naturally gathers information from every available source, making you know opportunities when you see them, causing you, through powers of observation, to know the intrinsic value of people and things, and helping you to be analytical and discriminating in a constructive way. You have, in personality, an artistic, interesting and magnetic radiation. Avocationally, you have the requisite ability to employ your talents in public entertainments, theatres and bazaars. Vocationally, Aquarius dominates justice and pleads for personal liberty through law or public speaking.

You are born under the sign of Gemini, and this sign is symbolized by the "Twins," which signifies that, in personal radiation, you are vivacious, anxious and changeable. You are keenly appreciative of educational advantages in self and others, and have a special aptitude for literature, science and art. In the avocational walks of life, you are methodical, analytical, and inclined to do everything on a large scale. People would rate you as being proud spirited and very executive. Therefore, in art or humanitarian endeavor, you would be a splendid manager and very transcendental in your motives and expressions. Vocationally, you could express along three points of interest, intermingling science, business programs and art.

You have, inherently, mechanical and philosophical ability. Characteristically, you are naturally inclined to question everything. In expression of your external world, you are diplomatic, conservative and industrious. Being very logical and having the faculty of seeing both sides of a question, you are quite skeptical in accepting religious beliefs. In personality radiation you are the inspirationalist, with the attributes of poise and purpose in your mental and physical expression and bearing. Avocationally, you can be a success in any business representing art wares. Vocationally, you have a very inventive turn of mind that would correlate splendidly with your gift for interior decorating or musical composition. Your vibrations dominate instruction. Therefore, you would be, as well, a successful teacher or leader in directing people into some new and creative expression.

You have a very sympathetic and emotional nature and your feelings are easily hurt by unkindness, and are greatly influenced by the spiritual and material powers of others. In inherent ability, you are cosmical and critical and have strong likes and dislikes in the choice of friends and environments. Usually judging others by your own sympathetic feelings, you are apt to be misled by types who are not warm-hearted or conscientious. In personality radiation you are social, active, interesting and brilliant in conversation. Naturally, you wish to be respected as being thoroughly reliable in the performance of your duties, and cannot endure being dictated to by others. Vocationally, you are shown to have special ability to render dramatic programs in which you should throw all the natural pathos of your nature into oral, written or vocal expression.

You are very determined in your tendencies, especially in reform or opposition. You are exceedingly fond of travel and the unusual phases and talents in people of your world. You have many of the prerogatives of the executive, with a natural feeling of responsibility toward those dependent on you for material help and guidance. You are original, self-creative, capable, affectionate, sensitive and occasionally eccentric. Avocationally, your love for humanity, plus intellectual ability, makes you an inspired leader in the spiritual and material worlds. Your path is strewn with loneliness and misunderstandings if you do not travel and learn the art of self-expression through the channels of philanthropy, healing and art. In personality attunement, you are electromagnetic.

Inherently, you are very clever at mimicry, as you can see the funny and human side of things, and understand human nature. Avocationally, you are best suited in a line of endeavor having to do with crowds of people, railroads, theatres, politics, or religion. In personality radiation you are just, generous, kind and merry, and because of your social attunement, you could achieve distinction and honor. In your combination of powers, many voyages are noted. In temperament, you are strong and vigorous. In spiritual force, you are capable of meeting adversity with prudence and courage. Admiration for military life and mountains is noted. Vocationally, you could be successful in creative and intellectual pursuits that have to do with law or literature.

September 3

In personality you have an artistic, lively and confident radiation. Inherently, Virgo gives you a love of truth and justice, with talent for law. You are analytical, critical and versatile. Your social attunement makes you an organizer for charitable projects or social hostess. Your active and courageous soul power shows that you are a natural leader in the every-day walks of life. You should be clever in speech and writing and in acquiring languages. Through your father's vibratory influences, things will slip away from you—sometimes through a personal fault of over-looking opportunity, but more often through uncontrollable circumstances. Watchwords: Look over every matter of importance to see that nothing has been neglected. Avocationally, you would make an excellent proof-reader. Vocationally, you would excel in professions having to do with travel and the law.

April 12

Your inherent ability is representative of a master in the spheres of creative and inspired art. Your spiritual attunement causes you to be very modest in estimating yourself and your ability. Your high attunement makes you dislike loud, sudden and discordant noises. Caution and deliberation are the keys to your particular radiation. Through your "four-square" conscience, sense of justice, and desire to build mentally and physically, you would be successful in religious lines of expression. Healing lines, medical or metaphysical, are on the list of your talents for vocational guidance. In vibratory influences, there is noted for you many strange occurrences, the power to achieve, and the determination to overcome obstacles.

Your Zodiac sign is Leo, which means that you are endowed with vitality and activity of mind, intellect, love and feeling. Your inherent ability represents universal attunement which means that you are naturally a student of the laws of cause and effect. The Sun was Ruler when you were born, which means that you are naturally endowed with strong determination, intuition and purpose, and if you will only persistently hold on, you are sure to be successful. You will always gratify your fondness for travel when possible to do so. You like change of scenes and occupations. Vocationally, you would excel, professionally, in dancing, acting, or in an occupation that ministers to the constructive good of others. You love the true and the beautiful, and delight in the bountiful rays of the sun. You have an electric radiation rather than a magnetic one.

November 8

Your birth sign, Scorpio, means that when the interior mystical sense, or higher self, is awakened, instead of generating on the physical plane, Mother Nature transfers her forces to a higher plane, knowing what you, as an individual, will do with your energies and powers. Your inherent power is executive ability. Your mind is critical, but just in reactionary measures. It is easy for you, through driving force, progressiveness of vision, and executive power, to tilt many old-fashioned beliefs and ideas. Your spiritual gift is a prolific imagination in the two worlds—spiritual and material. Avocationally, you are a director and organizer of new plans and purposes for self and others. Vocationally, you are an inspired civic leader, or head of an institution having to do with religion, libraries, politics and halls of learning.

March 27

You are under the influence of the constellation Aries, meaning light dawning. Characteristically, Aries places you, astrologically, in an exalted place for the soul's action, but ruled by Mars necessitates much self-discipline in order to overcome the turbulent inner self. Your inherent power swings you between positive and negative forces, which goes to show that you should work according to your own plan, or confusion quickly follows. You are very fond of change and romance. Discrimination and discretion should be your watchwords. Your life's experiences show travel, intermingling with the masses, and influential friends and contacts. Your vocational path shows diplomatic service on the intellectual and emotional planes.

July 21

In many directions you are gifted and talented almost to the point of genius, and like many geniuses you are never quite definable. Your inherent power shows more than the usual amount of ability to organize and execute the problems of your world of affairs. Because of the inner sensitive, emotional and erratic nature that you possess, you are somewhat adverse to the confinement that study entails; but it is imperative that you cultivate your intellect, as you have a great mission to fulfill on this earth plane. Your most advantageous day is Monday. In vocational work, your subconscious memory reacts to the knowledge that "order is heaven's first law." Your life's work, vocationally, could be to organize and manage units such as Red Cross work, or directing and placing the talents of others in their proper spheres.

October 20

Libra is your planet, and Friday your most advantageous day. Your spiritual and inspirational colors are rose, pink and pale blue. Inherently, you have a well-poised mind, kindly in manner. Faults to be avoided are worry and slavery to the domestic, professional or social demands made on your time and strength. Your mission in life shows the living sacrifice that love gladly gives in its demonstrations to the masses. It is important, therefore, that you keep in mind the symbol of the sign Libra—the balance—and to guard against permitting outside influences to tip the scales one way or the other. Perfect equilibrium is the ideal state for you. Vocationally, you are a leader and organizer in the constructive side of the world, and would be especially successful in co-operative undertakings.

Your sign, Leo, is ruled by the Sun, the life-giver of all things. This influence, coupled with your other planetary forces, shows that, inherently, you are of that peculiar turn of mind that enables you to achieve your goal, no matter how dangerous the perils may be. In personality radiation, impulse, psychology and versatility are the motivating characteristics in all of your expressions. In "Ideality" registration, you have chosen the "way of the triple crown," which may mean triple sorrows, or it may mean triple portions of joy, according to the way you use forces. Vocationally, your position under the Zodiacal signs inclines you strongly to the dramatic and literary lines of occupational endeavor.

Aquarius bestows on you a noble and progressive nature and a quick, receptive mind. In inherent ability, you have chosen the path of the practical things that will reach the "four-square" consciousness of man. It is the path of analysis, order and effort, in the working out of the Great Plan, but it is also the path of great rewards and a steady, even-flowing life, or, in other words, an honest service for an honest return. Avocationally, you are an inspirational teacher or guardian, and could be a spiritual and material builder in social or humanitarian lines.

January 31

The Aquarius influences affect you in every year, which means that your force of character and affections are strong, and you love with a remarkable degree of constancy. You are, characteristically, ingenious, have a forceful temper, but do not bear any malice. In personality radiation you are a leader, firm of will and tranquil in hours of emergency or distress. Inherently, you have a wide view of life, a broad mind, and much tendency to extend thought through all-inclusiveness of vision. Vocationally, your best forms of expression will be in the spheres of literary, vocal, or commercial arts. Your public appearance vibration stands for leadership.

May 20

Your planetary assignment in birth makes you ambitious for social recognition and honors, yet you are not satisfied with their achievement. In gathered wisdom, you have marked intuitive power, yet you require incontrovertible proof to be convinced when some new phase of thought or truth is presented to you. You are very versatile, but what your nature lacks most is the power of concentrated effort. You are. in vocational power, especially rich in ideas and plans for the betterment of clubs, societies and public welfare work, but you should always be in association with others who have greater continuity of purpose.

Taurus is your sign of the Zodiac, and Venus is your ruling planet. As the sign Taurus is in close relation to the second House of love and marriage, you most likely will have your career interfered with through these experiences in your life. In all matters of a domestic or social nature, you should be alone, and in calmness and meekness of spirit, seek to know your higher self so that you will choose those for associates who will bring out the finer side of your nature and the constructive skill that you possess. You have executive ability, plus artistic and scientific attunement for a career as decorator or designer, sculptor, landscape gardener, or art collector.

You are endowed with an ingenuous, strictly honest nature, a merciful soul, and a constant heart. Through inherent ability, you very often display amazing ingenuity and ability in completing or perfecting the inventions or programs of others. You are happiest and best contented when your physical energy and executive ability are fully engaged. Vocationally, you should take an active interest and leading part in public life. You are born under an occult sign, and even to a greater degree, a musical sign; therefore, you could be a lecturer on divine science or follow your inclinations in musical directions and be a success.

Scorpio endows you with an electric, brave and forceful nature. Your mental qualities are a mixture of fixed views and subtle mind. You are not easily imposed upon, but are sometimes in danger of imposition. You have a fondness for research in the occult or chemical lines. Your personality radiation is confidence in self and very courageous. Vocationally, you would be successful in interior decorating and as a floral decorator. On the platform, you would be convincing in your arguments, and along the musical lines you would be distinguished for ease in rendition, but the selection of your compositions would be of a weird nature.

Saturn, the ruling planet of your sign, Capricorn, bestows upon you a high moral nature with conscientious regard for duties and responsibilities. Great respect for public opinion is a marked trait in you. You are not demonstrative, being deliberate under most circumstances; yet you know your true friends, and appreciate their friendship. You are, in personality radiation, highly magnetic, and people are attracted to you without effort on your part. Inherently, you are fond of things beautiful and harmonious in both people and art. Vocationally, you would be successful in occupational callings having to do with travel, teaching, acting, science, or financial matters.

Inherently, your registration gives good qualities and good deeds, and characteristically, you are moral, high-minded and honorable. There is strong religious attunement within your subjective consciousness, and, for this reason, it is more than likely you will be in affiliation with some cause or movement of a religious nature in the year 1935. In temperament, you are serious, thoughtful and fond of meditation. You have the characteristic of carefully overlooking and matching every detail of any important matter. As a leader of girl scout military work, you would be in your right environment and calling. In vocational guidance, you belong to the realm of artists, singers and leaders.

Saturn and Uranus are the ruling planets of your sign, Aquarius. The influence of Saturn is shown in the gift of caution, prudence, economics and financial ability. Uranus is responsible for your nervous temperament and mental quickness. In inherent power, your ability represents the intellectual and scientific phases of humanity. Although changes are noted, you are generally fortunate in worldly matters. Characteristically, you do not worry greatly, believing that all will be right in the end. Although you have marked artistic talent, you would, in vocational endeavor, be more successful in useful enterprises or voyages, especially those arranged for instruction.

Cancer, your birth sign, is governed by Luna, the Moon, which rules the reflective faculties and gives mechanical and constructive ability. In the material world, you are shown to have a fondness for speculation and games of chance. When the Sun reaches the sign Cancer on its annual journey through the Zodiac, it then starts back on its course until it reaches the Fall equinox; hence, this backward motion influences you to be retrospective. Characteristically, you are exceedingly sensitive to mental wounds. You long for camaraderie, love and domestic comfort. In personality radiation you are emotional, magnetic and never quite definable. Vocationally, you have artistic talent that could be used professionally or for commercial purposes.

In inherent ability, you have the mental attunement of the philosopher. Characteristically, you are positive, alert, broad-minded, and would be sure to resent the least semblance of compulsion, but can be ruled most definitely by kindness and sympathetic accord. You are gifted with a projective and progressive mind and you seek opportunities. There is one thing certain, and that is you are most likely to succeed when left to your own judgment, methods and schemes. In personality radiation you are ambitious and daring, refined and sensitive, two contrary reflections but true nevertheless. Vocationally, you have great wisdom to unfold in writing or public speaking.

April 10

In inherent ability, you show possibilities in the line of diplomacy, and will naturally attract to yourself those who would use your diplomatic ability and then not admit that you had anything to do with the victory. In personality radiation you are progressive, magnetic and sympathetic. You are strongly artistic, clever and fond of travel and social life. You have a natural desire to command, but also have the ability to do this in a subtle way that is most interesting from thte standpoint of analysis. In ability, vocationally, you are the intellectual builder of bodies and minds through the exploitation of psychology and other advanced theories and truths.

August 6

Planetary currents of Leo continually surround you and at times these forces illumine your personality to such an extent that you seem to be possessed of supernatural power. The spiritual side of your nature is very marked, which accounts for the fact thtat you attract others to you with no intention on your part to do so. Inherently, you are versatile, impulsive, and do many things on the spur of the moment, many of which you often regret. When your mind is rightly attuned, you are capable of being most aspiring, blessed, and lovable. In vocational work, you would do well in the art of healing, such as physician or nurse. You have talent for writing plays, short stories, or editorials.

Your senses are keenly alive and are, in personality radiation, attractive and magnetic. Inherently, your knowledge and intuitions lie deep and do not readily appear on the surface. You have remarkable powers of concentration, plus healthful forces, chemically, that may be imparted to others, thereby consciously or unconsciously, making you an excellent mental healer. You are the most loyal of friends, but must be permitted to have your own way and to dominate the friendship. In vocational spheres, you belong to the masses as hostess or organizer. You desire to civilize and nourish; therefore, in writing, directing, or oral announcement over the radio, you would be in excellent attunement to this responsibility and calling.

Inherently, you have chosen the path of the practical things of life, especially the things that can be told inspirationally and that will reach the greatest possible number of people. In mental processes, your intellectual "findings" are always, analytically, criss-crossing your inspirational "gatherings." This mental structure would have a tendency to make you widely famous as a writer or lecturer on certain technical subjects, especially some of the "how and why" types of books or oral analysis. As a Sagittarius, you came into the world at the time of the year when the days are the shortest and the nights the longest. For this reason, you are remarkable in many ways.

MYRTLE PORTER

ROCKINGHAM, N. C.

August 2

Patience and hope are the predominant qualities of your innate characteristics. You rarely despair, even under great mental pressure. You have strong organizing ability and can see over large mental spaces, and for this reason you are better in managing large affairs, functions and ceremonies than small ones. You are shown to have much imagination and fluency in speaking and writing, and for this reason, you should excel in inspirational endeavor having to do with the talents and aspirations of others. You are cosmical in your viewpoint, which fact shows you to be a natural teacher and mother. In personality radiation you are wonderfully kind, sincere and true.

CORNELIA POWELL

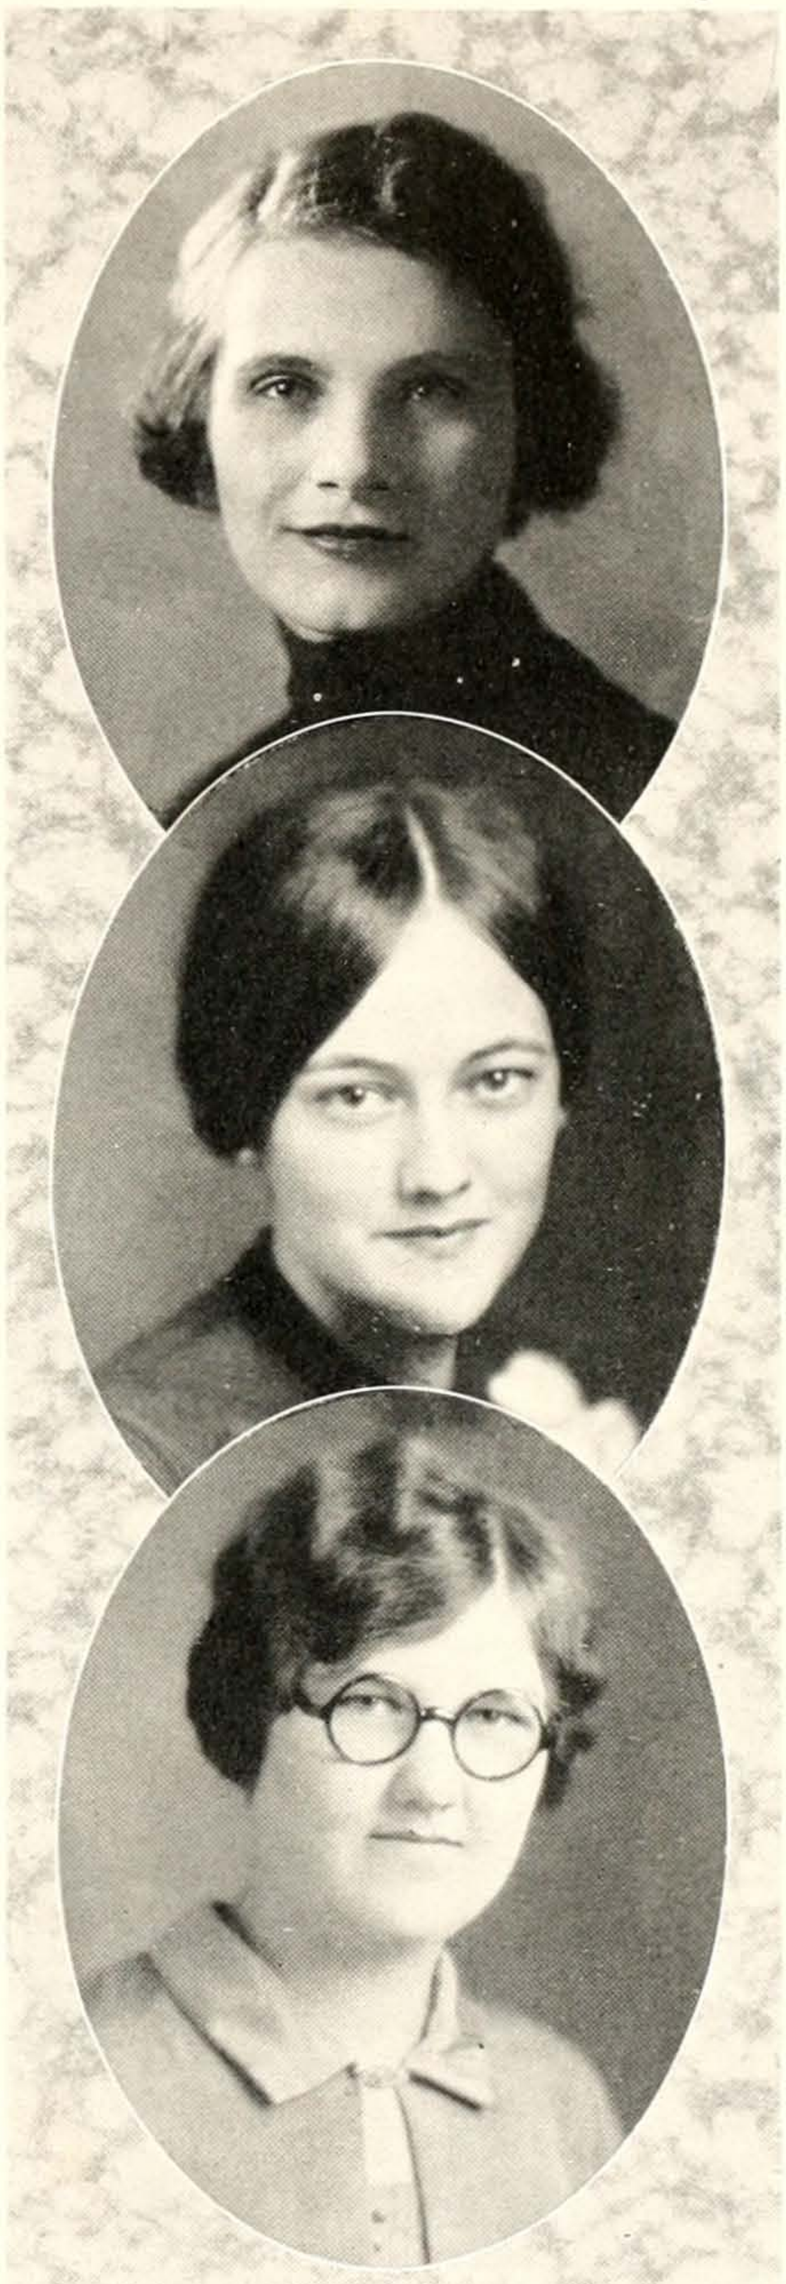
February 12

Inherently, you are very intuitive, a clear reasoner, and a splendid judge of character. You are faithful in the discharge of your duties and to the trust reposed in you in whatever sphere you may be employed. You are, in personality radiation, active, helpful, and can readily and tactfully adapt yourself to circumstances and emergencies, yet never feel burdened because you are able to see the amusing side of things. You are a natural spiritual builder and reformer, yet you could be successful in business. At times you are very nervous, especially anxious about certain things. Much religious tendency is noted in your vibratory influences. You would be successful lecturing on spiritual psychology.



SADIE BELLE PROCTOR

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

A. B. Education

Cornelian; Education Club (4).

February 13

You are the personification of dignity, and are never found mixed up in dissentions, yet you are strongly analytical and critical. Characteristically, the depth of your nature precludes much surface indication of what may be passing in your mind. Like running water, the shallow murmurs as it passes on its way, while the deep goes on in tranquil silence. Your intuitive qualities are magnificently strong, but there is a tendency to suppress your imaginative power and disregard your intuition, which, of course, is not good for your particular type of mind. Vocationally, you could most easily focus your talent and ability on art, religion, politics, law and science.

You are possessed of a highly emotional nature, of great inherent goodness and pride and ambition, as well as vigor and buoyancy of spirit. Your indomitable will-power will always enable you to pull through and extract yourself from trying circumstances. Like all others of the fire signs, you are quick to anger, but soon recover from your adverse emotions. If you have talent either for vocal or instrumental music, it is little less than a crime to neglect it. The same rule applies for you to any of the creative arts or literature, or to the intellectual professions.

MARTHA LOUISE REAVIS

RALEIGH, N. C.

April 17

In inherent ability, you are creative, versatile and artistic. In your world of every-day affairs, you express your intellectuality in a colorful and emotional way through the channels of organized effort in a balanced and successful way. In the material world, you attract people of learning to enter into many debates and ideals of a much finer type than you find it practicable at all times to live up to or use. In your present radiation of character and mental processes, you crave the chance to bring forth with originality and novelty the mainsprings of your thoughts and analysis. You will, therefore, find a pleasant and highly worth-while path if you follow some vocational calling as writer, teacher of philosophy, humorist, or entertainer.

December 22

Your inherent power shows that you are likely to make a name for yourself through the inauguration of a system that saves time or values in the analysis of the social system and ethics of the day. You are a creator of advanced understanding, and should employ your talents for the good of the masses. In vocational attunement, you have, metaphysically speaking, chosen a destiny in this life that is capable of leading you to the heights in some inventive or artistic form of expression. It is within you to find what this is, whether it is a new code of social ethics, painting, music, sculpture, literature, acting or journalism. Stay with your one objective until you arrive; otherwise, you will never be happy if you do not complete the divine urge within you.

December 31

Your inherent ability tends to make you a sort of "power behind the throne," seeking consultation and the position of trust to some more dynamic and ambitious personality. In personality radiation you might be classed as a social hostess, organizer, or "mixer" in spheres and with types who need your diplomatic attunement. You, obviously, will find a natural channel along the lines of governmental service and public welfare work. Socially, you have the attributes of a charming hostess. Characteristically, you have a love for flowers and plants. Vocationally, you would find your time and talents well employed in the following avenues of expression: law, travel, or teaching.

HELEN REINHARDT

January 3

In inherent ability, you have much wisdom, mental poise, and spiritual sensitiveness. Inherently, you resent a reflection upon the object of your regard with the utmost vigor. You are so finely organized and sensitive that you are likely to go through life without being understood and appreciated. Any worthy cause that appeals to you is ably sponsored, and you would not hesitate to make great personal sacrifice to be of practical service. You never show your real worth until you assume some definite responsibility. Vocationally, you are a creator of active and artistic enterprises for the financial and artistic benefit of self and others.

Libra shows that, inherently, you fully recognize your ability and require that others recognize it in your world of affairs. You are, characteristically, persistent in your efforts and competent in the performance of whatever duties may be intrusted to you. You can be depended upon to finish your work in a careful and conscientious manner. In personality radiation you are generally noted for excellent qualities of mind and heart and for good deeds. Vocationally, you are observing of regulations and like detail, and could succeed in any profession or occupation necessitating detail in connection with the purchase and sale of small articles. You are in attunement with the "calling" of a chemist or druggist.

Your planet inclines you to follow the promptings of impulse, emotion and artistic desires. Inherently, you are cosmical in interests and understanding, and would make an excellent teacher, dean, or director of home, school and society. In personality radiation you are practical, useful, dependable and ethical. Your versatile powers and imagination fill you with interest and, in turn, you are correspondingly interesting to people. You are a leader and have executive ability, and, coupled with your other gifts, you are best suited to an occupation having to do with theatres, music, voice culture and groups of people.

October 7

Inherently, you are studiously inclined, and capable of gathering information from every available source. In personal radiation you are emotional, yet impersonal, sensitive, and yet determined. Therefore, you might be classed as paradoxical. Vocationally, you have the mental powers to be a teacher of domestic science. Artistic effort along the lines of music, designing and literary expression are within your mental concepts and understanding. Avocationally, you are gifted in acquiring languages, and, if desired, should be able to hold a position as interpreter and foreign correspondent.

Capricorn, your sign, represents the dark sign of the earth. It is the historic occult sign of solitude and meditation. The influence, therefore, shows that you have within your keeping and conscious knowledge a brilliant intellectuality, as well as the most temperamentally depressed nature that one could possess. In personality radiation your battles of every-day life are usually won through your ability to manage rather than through the combative elements in your nature. In vocational guidance, you have much power and many talents, but through a legal aspect of mind and attunement, you would succeed in the study and practice of law. Avocationally, you have the literary prerogatives of a writer or lecturer on metaphysical subjects.

MARY ISABELLE ROBERTS

A. B. Education

Adelphian; Flora MacDonald College (1, 2); Spanish Club (3); Education Club (4); House Vice-President (4).

March 28

Inherently, you are apt to exhaust your thought power, from the fact that everything you come in contact with must pass through the crucible of the intellect, and you are inclined to fill your mind with too much of many things at the same time. Your mission in life is to lead others into higher and unbiased states of consciousness. You are self-expressive, highly creative, and very determined. Owing to your own mental strength and resourcefulness, you can find no room for sympathy or pity for the weakness and failure of others. Vocationally, you have particular attunement to music and interior decorating.

PHILYS BRYANT ROGERS

February 24

In personality radiation you are shown to have noble instincts and an attractive vibration, but you are more electric than magnetic. Inherently, you are particularly pure-minded, and have no place in your heart for anything that savors of the contrary. Being ethical in tastes and desires, you insist upon unity, order, harmony and artistic expression in everything. Considerable travel appears in your life-scale of vibratory influences. You could be successful in public speaking, writing, architecture and designing. Avocationally, you are an organizer of cosmical and civic interests.

Mars, the ruling planet of this sign, gives you confidence and self-illumination. Your self-control is remarkable, and manifests itself not only in your reserve in speaking, but in the firmness, sureness and deftness of your hands, combined with keen observation, rare poise and good judgment. In personality radiation you are poised, sensible, sincere and confidential. In conscious mind, you are critical, analytical and conscientious. Through your inspiration, intuitive guidance and keen mentality, you have the attributes of a philosopher who is desirous of helping, illuminating and healing the minds and hearts of people. With your ability and sincerity you could deserve and attract fame and fortune.

Cornelian; Arkansas College (1, 2); Proctor (3, 4); Education Club (3, 4); French Club (2 3).

November 21

You were born under Scorpio, with Mars as the ruling planet. This combination relates you to the mysterious powers through the operation of vibratory forces, electro-magnetic currents, and solar fluids, all of which con stantly influence your life. In inherent ability, you are shown to have keen perception and a wonderful intuition which inspires confidence and admiration, and is a great factor in helping you to obtain favors that would be withheld in your world of related corresponding interests. In vocational experience, your path may be likened to that of glittering intelligence, as it presages, through vibratory influences, great power in any of the inspirational spheres of expression.

NAOMI ELIZABETH SCHELL

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

A. B. English

September 21

According to your vibratory influences, you are positive, creative, analytical and versatile. Intuition is strongly marked in your forces. In personality radiation you are co-operative, active and expressive. In mental concepts, your natural impulses and analyses are usually drawn from the inspiration of the moment rather than from long, drawn-out, materialistic deductions. Your taste for art and the ability to analyze, combined with your liking for detail, form and color, makes you very able as art, musical, or dramatic critic.

Your planetary influence superinduces in you a natural tendency toward the beautiful and artistic in all things. Some highly talented musicians, artists and professional people come out of this sign. In personality radiation you are exceedingly benefited, through solar currents, when the sun shines, but when it is cloudy or rainy you are apt to become sad, imaginative and depressed. Through your spiritual gift of intuition, you are enabled to recognize friend or foe, and are sure to form your likes and dislikes from your first impression. In vocational ability, you are shown to have strong constructiveness, mentally and physically. You can use tools, pens, and other implements with dexterity. If you work after a model or pattern, you easily learn to do, efficiently and statistically, what you see others do.

You were born under the sub-luma influences of Leo, which shows that, inherently, you are stimulated, inspirationally, to form ideas and create scenes in which every object is vested with the perfection you delight to contemplate. Therefore, this birth sign is particularly valuable to you in planetary influences, as it helps to make you progressive. In personality radiation you are shown to be somewhat nervous, fond of travel, and particularly sensitive to the spheres of others. Vocationally, you have the faculty of calling attention, through writing or lecturing, to future existence, intuitive perceptions, and meditation on divine things.

You were born under the sign of Sagattarius, and the solar fluids and planetary forces that surround and permeate you are sources of strength and helpfulness. Being, inherently, positive, out-spoken and truthful, you very often utter the first thing that comes to your mind regardless of the views of others; therefore, your lesson in life is to make greater allowances for those not highly organized. In personality radiation you are creative, self-expressive, interesting, and sometimes dramatic through your emotional nature. Vocationally, you are an originator of new plans and purposes in the avenues of healing and counselling.

Your inherent ability, through the sub-luma influences of Aries, is that of an active, operative builder of the temple, benefic in all ways. Characteristically, you love beauty and display, have good business and organizing ability, and strong attunement to domestic and civic interests. In personality radiation you are graceful and forgiving, but your feelings are very easily hurt. In domestic affairs, you are very thoughtful, generous and philanthropic, and do not tie a string to what you give. You naturally love harmony, order and beauty in all forms. Vocationally, you have the talent to be at the head of a school of expression having to do with the social arts and sciences.

October 26

You were born under the sub-luma influences of Scorpio, which means that once you become interested and actually engaged in any task you are wonderfully tenacious and persistent. You are courageous and have a stern sense of justice, which leads you to assist the weak and oppressed and to call before the bar of justice all those, no matter what their station, whose ideas and actions are opposed to your conception of right and wrong. In personality radiation you are unyielding in your desire to help others, highly strung, temperamentally, and through positive analysis, you know the perfect line of demarkation between the mentally and physically weak and strong. Your ability, vocationally, is that of dramatic critic.

Your planets show that you are capable of throwing tremendous will power and energy into your projects. In professional spheres, you would do well in association with Virgo, when impetuosity, positiveness and will power would meet with the quieter counsels of the analytical Virgo, resulting in advantages to both. Inherently, you have a positive "four-square" intellectual endowment that understands life in most of its interesting and essential phases. In personality radiation you are mentally and physically poised, very humanitarian, and sensitive to the ideals of life in and out of the earth plane. Vocationally, you are an ethical writer, actor, or lawyer, and your activities should always be employed on a large scale.

The sign under which you were born is Scorpio, which shows, through your birthday, November 11, that you are fearless. Your type makes good soldiers, nurses and inspirational teachers. Your word is law in your household, and disobedience is apt to be taken quite seriously. Failure to receive what you consider your just due of consideration has a marked effect on your temperament and happiness. You are a natural reservoir of wisdom. In personality radiation your astral forces represent patience and passivity, but sometimes, through a conflict of emotions, you worry unnecessarily. When you vibrate to the true light within your conscious mind, you are a great influence for good.

The undertow of your forces portend toward ambition, strong will, and success through hard work. On the path of experience, Vocation, you should never work in subordinate positions because of your original and progressive ideas. The present cycle of your life is indicative of frequent changes in mood and occupation. Your birth-path forces are favorable to public life. The present cycle of years places you in an environment of letters, writings, books, teachers, and short journeys. Some of the paramount characteristics, as shown for you in these years, are strong intuition and foresight, with possibly artistic talent to be used in the creative arts. At times, you retard your progress by the lack of "centralfixation" in your plans and purposes.

The sign, Gemini, your birth sign, indicates a peculiarity that is frequently observed in people born of this sign, usually of a dual personality. In Greek mythology the sign Gemini is represented by Castor and Pollux, who, on account of their double nature, are constantly at sword points with each other. Characteristically, you have more new and clever ideas in a week than most people have in a life time. Your strongest trait is your inherent ability to estimate mentally everyone with whom you come in contact. Having a brilliant and active imagination, plus the gift of oratory and the ability to originate plans, you would find your niche as a diplomat, having to do with the raising of funds for charities or educational purposes.

You were born under the sign of Aquarius, and this being a fixed sign, indicates, through constellation influences, that your mind is inflexible, your will firm, and that you have a creative and versatile intellect. One fault to be noted in your registrations is your love for solitude. This reflective, mental, and highly attuned state of feeling and being is not particularly good for you, as the tendency is to make you local in your sphere of activity and expression, as well as temperamentally causing you to feel alone and misunderstood. When in contact with your social duties, you radiate quite the reverse attitude, being most cheerful and full of geniality. Vocationally, you have the ability to be an experimentalist in science or a writer.

February 6

You were born under the sign of Aquarius, the eleventh sign of the Zodiac. Aquarius is associated with the Seventh Race in humanity, and it is one of the most difficult signs to understand, its ruling influence being the occult planet Uranus. As you are now entering the Aquarian age, you are governed by the Aquarian sign, and, in consequence, your spiritual gifts of healing, inventing and high-visioning should be increased. Your high sensitiveness and human understanding shows that, in personality radiation, you are not bold, aggressive or dominant. On the contrary, will and harmony yield for the sake of peace.

The Sun was in the constellation of Leo at the time of your birth, and as the Sun reigns supreme when it enters the sign Leo, you are governed at all times by the influences of the Sun. The influences inherently bestowed upon you through this combination is likened to the third verse of the first chapter of Genesis. God said, "Let there be Light"; then, as we know, according to the words, streamed forth the shafts of light, impregnating the intense darkness like to the spirit entering matter. In personality radiation you are mentally and physically active, very hospitable, highly sensitive, and wonderfully inspirational to those who understand your power and ability. Vocationally, you belong to the profession of healing or dramatic expression, or to the sphere of literature.

Mercury is the ruling planet of your birth sign Gemini, and it bestows upon you, in personality radiation, a vivacious temperament and sparkling wit. You belong in the realm of the intellect, and your most emphatically marked characteristic is your extreme versatility. Inherently, you are gifted with a perfect understanding between the sentimental ideals and the materialistic phases of the earth plane and humanity. One side of your nature impels you toward positive demonstrations of affection and concern toward your acquaintances, while the other side is sensitive to their defects and affections. Vocationally, you are a world traveller, and a writer or lecturer on what you see and discover in your tours.

Aries, your sign, was considered of first importance to many of the ancient nations, and has a great wealth of legend and lore surrounding it. Consequently, you inherently feel your power and are the natural commander and ruler feeling it your privileged duty to direct all those about you no matter whether it is in the business world, politics, love, or religion. In personality radiation you are practical, poised and sensitive to the niceties of life and its environmental conditions. Vocationally, your power and mission in life is to heal and teach through natural methods. As a child specialist, you would concoct your own novel prescriptions and have curative chemical elements in them that would agree with the nature and chemicals of patients.

In inherent ability, you are creative, active, self-expressive and ambitious. Characteristically, you are a very keen observer; small details rarely escape your notice. You admire dignity, originality and intellect in others, and the surest way to win your esteem and confidence is to have more than the average amount of intelligence. Inherently, you have epicurean tastes. You just naturally aspire to the best things, but are sometimes discouraged, through the influance of your Mercurial disposition, in the pursuit of them. Your musical talent is strongly marked and you should be able to invent some new method of composition that will interest the masses in the psychological benefits of harmony and music.

Mercury is your ruling planet. Under this planetary influence it is quite difficult for you to accomplish much in either study or work, or to adapt yourself to new surroundings unless order and harmony prevail. In inherent ability, you are strongly analytical, usually drawing your deductions and conclusions from a material point of view. On the other hand, you have a counterbalancing force that makes intuitional leads very strong. Consequently, you are shown to have a constant mental battle in the theatre of your subjective consciousness. In vocational work, you belong to the realm of the plastic arts.

Being born under the influences of Sagittarius is both fortunate and unfortunate, as it tends to cause great extremes in mood as well as in good and ill fortune. Therefore, make the most of happiness and success while you have it to enjoy, realizing that action and reaction are equal for you in the great scheme of things. While it is well to be sincere and honest, you should guard against being too quick in speech or action when dealing with others. Cultivate repose and be less positive and less extreme both mentally and physically; otherwise, you will draw unnecessarily on your store of nervous energy, causing a nervous breakdown. Inherently, you are a revelator in all things having to do with the fountain head of mental conception.

FRESH SENIORS

Class of '28

A Progressive Historical Comedy

Theme: Love, Loyalty and Honor

Act I.

Scene: A dreary stretch of rain-sodden campus. As the act progresses the stage brightens and the sun is shining steadily when the curtain falls.

Synopsis: 'Twenty-eight enters staggering under a load of baggage. She weeps as she explains to the audience that she has just been bereft of home and family, but when Big Sister appears on the scene she dries her eyes; the sun comes out. Her role becomes more and more important as she figures in an exciting election to put in office as chief assistant Ernestine Welton, destined to appear often throughout the play.

Now our heroine is carried through a rapid succession of events: Freshman Commission meetings, "lame duck" classes, hockey games, and the like—all contributing to the purpose of getting adjusted. Every incident portrays a halcyon period of enthusiastic response.

The curtain is lowered a moment to denote the passing of Christmas-time.

Tragedy now approaches in the form of mid-term exams but 'Twenty-eight extricates herself from this difficult situation and strengthens her status by means of a basketball championship and the introduction to the campus of a clean-up campaign. Kate Caldwell is appointed chief-assistant to 'Twenty-eight. The heroine is now tendered the honor of initiation into the societies, her sisters contributing the first full quota to the Aletheian society. Events move swiftly and with the presentation of a May basket to Big Sister, 'Twenty-eight becomes a fully-recognized member of the campus. She stands expectantly facing the audience as

The Curtain Falls.

Act II.

Same scene, enhanced with lavender and white decorations.

Synopsis: 'Twenty-eight and her sisters, led by Frances Whisnant and Virginia Sloan, make a triumphal entry, clad in purple and white jerseys, an innovation, and cheering loudly. This demonstration of her importance is followed by a Sophomore-Senior party, in which 'Twenty-eight extends the hand of fellowship. She launches herself on a campaign for solidarity—organizing a sophomore council, making money for Spencer gym, and planning her tree night. She has become a bit blase, and soon a period of "Sturm und Drang" sets in, as she asks the eternal why? of an adamant world.

A sadness falls over her as she prepares, with daisy chain and song, for the departure of Big Sister, who goes out to the blare of trumpets as

The Curtain Falls.

ACT III.

Same scene, with much noise and bustle.

Synopsis: 'Twenty-eight, now dignified by the hierarchal title of Big Sister, is getting acquainted with her new kinsmen, daughters of 'Thirty. Her role now places her above the throng as an Upper Classman, and she asserts her rights by planning a banquet, changing the tune of her song, and petitioning, with a large gesture, for the use of the privilege of dancing with young gentlemen. Hannah Wearn is now our heroine's right-hand man. Another basketball championship is won and later a swimming championship. This goes to her head a bit and she takes the final step by banishing corsages from the Junior-Senior banquet. This is the pioneer age! The plot thickens and action moves swiftly towards this banquet—a delightful though hypothetical sojourn into the realm of Arabian Nights. Junior week-end is the next event manoeuvered by our heroine—a bus-ride at night and singing in the rain!

The creative ability of 'Twenty-eight is again portrayed in her beautiful tree-dawn ceremonial. The crowning glory comes when she dons a ring of gold and amethyst and is proclaimed a Senior. She is lavishly giving service during the great home-coming week as

The Curtain Falls.

ACT IV.

Same scene—more quiet.

Synopsis: 'Twenty-eight is poised but less enthusiastic and a bit weary. She sets about the strenuous task of making a successful finale, with a determined calm befitting her position. With the assistance of Helen Tighe, leading the other sisters, she plans her record for the great diary—Pine Needles—arranges for the baccalaureate sermon and commencement address, talks curiously of cap-and-gown, and—entertains the faculty! There are vague whispers of the future, but the Act is left unfinished and

The Curtain Falls.

Class Prophecy

IN taking it upon ourselves to foretell a bright and happy future for the most worthy members of our talented class, we have been constantly hampered by that well-known prediction to the effect that though prophecies are permissible, they shall fail. Feeling our efforts wasted we conferred with Ye Editor, who bade us give the Muse free reign, and let the future take care of itself. Therefore, "with malice toward none, with charity to all," we submit our conception of what might be the situation of our colleagues in future times, tempering it with the fervent hope that greater happiness is in store for all. We limit ourselves to no dates: in the land of make-believe, time does not exist. Now let the Three Sisters, gazing into the future, speak:

Although most of our class have preferred to call these United States home, there are some who are spreading their country's fame elsewhere. Ernestine Welton has made a most distinctive mark in the diplomatic world and has achieved to her reward in the capacity of first ministress to the Fiji Islands. Helen Tighe, also having been caught in the fascinating web of politics, is first consuless to the lost cities of Yucatan. Molly Hall recklessly gambled her husband's fortune away at roulette, and is now a fugitive from the law as a result of her successful raid upon the bank at Monte Carlo. In France we find Lucille Boone ably holding down the position of professor of French at the Sorbonne. Two of the most charming mannequins at P. Point's Modiste Shoppe in Paris are Bush Lewis and Virginia Marsh. In the Sahara, Dot Davidson and Martha Farrar are making fortunes selling slickers and galoshes, having bribed the weather-woman, Evelyn Roberts, to predict an impending rainy spell. Rosalie Wiley has charmed the Count de Dollars into complete submission, and reigns supreme in the historic principality of Walletstein.

The dear old United States, however, has held most of her own. Quite a few of the girls have made their marks in the world of letters or science, when they have invaded fields hitherto neglected. Elizabeth LeRoy has proved that the Theory of Relativity is relatively simple. Evelyn Thompson shook the very foundations of Biology with the discovery that the amoeba is not an animal, but a peanut. Lucile Sharpe, in collaboration with Minnie Allgood, Rebecca Ward and Alice Mae Craig, has divided the electron into ten thousand parts. Virginia Batte, after a careful study of times past and present, has reached the conclusion that modern thought is not so modern after all. Fadean Pleasants is a world-famous psychiatrist—and a happy wife.

"The American Minerva" is in every good library. The Editor Frances Gibson, better known as "Gibby" or "the feminine Mencken," has gathered together an able staff. Lilly Gilly is managing editor of the magazine, of which Sally Smith, one of the most proficient advertising agents in the country, has charge of the business end. Winnie Murphey, Mary Elizabeth Gorham, Joyce Cooper, Allene Whitener, Patty Webb and Lacy Lee Gaston form the most celebrated of staffs. The magazine's contributors include the well-known poet, Thelma Getsinger, as well as Fodie Buie, whose articles on Y. W. C. A. work are much sought after. It was "The American Minerva" that published Katherine Hardeman's "How I Swam the Atlantic in 49 Days, 23 Hours and 59 Minutes"; Louise Dalton's philosophical doctrine of "Perpetuating Pugnacious Propensities"; Ruth Henley's "Learning to be a Golf Champion"; and Sara Foust's thrilling recital, "My Experiences as a Society-hall Detective; or The Riddle of the Records."

One of the most modern schools of the day is the Duco Finishing Institute, whose faculty includes some of the most noted scholars of the day. Buster Wearn, Dean of Women and professor of Sociology, has in Martha Wright a perfect secretary. Kate Caldwell enjoys life as Lady Principal on the staff. Among the professors, each an expert in her particular field, are: Grace Miller, A. B., Spanish; Virginia Barker, C. D., Mathematics; Katherine Schenk, E. F., Latin; Nancy Richardson, G. H., English; Ruth Johnston, I. J., History; Myra Webb, K. L., French; Virginia Sloan, M. N., Etiquette of Eating; Wilmer Kuck, O. P., Charming Chatter; Christine Hutaff, O. R., Athletic Antics; Reita Jane Lyons, S. T., Tact; Nell Johnson, U. V., Means of Making a Match; Fanny Dunlap, W. X., Rational Reducing with Rations; and Peggy Green, Y. Z., Purity in Politics.

Frances Willis, after a meteoric rise in the political field, is running for president with the slogan "I Do Not Choose to be Defeated." Financed by Evelyn Bangert, who has been promised the treasury department in event of success, she and Martha Biggs, aspirants to the vice-presidency, are making a nation-wide campaign, of which Mae Stoudemire is the resourceful manager and Dorothy Schwab, press agent. Among the various politicians whose speeches for this erstwhile college mate have made an impression upon the politically minded, are: Mildred Lindsay, Evelyn Gordon, Vivian Kearns, Elise Gathings, Sara Barnette, Grace Ashworth, Myra Davis, Ruth Minick, Alice Whitley and Clementine Brodie.

The lights and grease paint of the theatre have lured quite a few of our number. De Alva Stewart has returned from a triumphant tour of Europe and her manager, Margaret Beam, assures the public that before long Miss Stewart will appear in the new play written especially for her by Pearle Hege. Puss Butler is the idol of all screen addicts, having completely eclipsed her only rival, Greta Garbo, in favor. The names of Wilhemina Wieland, Viola Scurlock, Hazel Kearns and Bill Jones are also popular with the theatre-going public.

One of the big musical comedy hits is Mary Lou Fuller's "Maryland" whose cast includes: Mary Davis, Mary Virginia Howard, Mary Huffines, Mary Holloday and Mary McAulay.

Nell Jones, Constance Gwaltney, Lydia Percival, Isabel Tarry, Verna Hodges, Margaret McIver, Katherine Absher and Ruth Bellamy are members of a dancer's syndicate that has eclipsed the Denishawn Dancers.

Iredell Brinn has sung her way into fame and fortune and is now on a concert tour with Daisy Tucker as her accompanist.

Mary Louise McDearman, Alpha Gettys, Louise Mayes, Louise Clifford and Henrie Miller have founded a school of philosophy based on the belief that life is a bubble—and soapy. At that, Frances Bobbitt, though refusing to adhere to their belief, has joined the group that she might not be separated from Henrie and Louise.

Quiet and seclusion seemed so alluring to Cynthia Bagby, Daisy Dell Gay and Katherine Redfern that they have all entered nunneries.

Ruth Reynolds is living in ease from the proceeds of her "Walking Hose—they never run."

Olive Brown, unable to cure her many ailments by any known medicines, has at last decided to give athletics a trial.

Louise Rotha has invented a combination umbrella, slicker and galoshes which has supplanted the separate articles.

Mildred Davis and Eleanor Graves are in the United States Senate. Mildred has grown fanatical upon the subject of the "absolute necessity of the isolation of the United States." In our own Senate at Raleigh, Helen Rinehardt plead so eloquently that the solons were hypnotized into passing a law permitting dances at N. C. C.

Lucy Weber has perfected a no-kind preparation whose potency surpasses that of all previous concoctions. Ersell Geanes, Lottie Towe and Alda Winecoff have opened a school for the correct pronunciation of names.

Emily Rideoutte is the head of an asylum for decrepit derelicts of the animal kingdom. The asylum, dedicated to the memory of the late lamented Soup Bone, is sponsored by the wealthy philanthropist, Irene Oliver.

Not all of our classmates have been fortunate in the world. Caroline Harris is an inmate of an insane asylum, still devoting her time to a vain search for a business manager of Pine Needles. Ann Wilkinson broke under the strain of letting her hair grow out and now shares Caroline's padded cell.

Edith Kale, Louise Shepherd, Thelma Stone, Nannie Thornburg, Mildred Vogler, Louise Cherry, Ailene Wilkins, Eugenia Sessoms, Margaret Hunter and Annie Mae Morris are managers of various thriving beauty and modiste shoppes. In the beauty shoppes, Celeste Armfield is demonstrating her new permanent wave which grows toward the scalp as the hair grows out. Hilda Brawley is showing a type of cosmetic that lasts a year if no water is applied.

Among those who have scorned all suitors and are confirmed independent women with careers of their own are: Mary Lou Haynes, Sara Ashcraft, Elizabeth Glascock, Margaret Walters, Hilda Gordon, Lula Mae Simpson, Frances Knox, Anna Belle Ardrey, Frances Landreth, Geneva McCachern, Tempie McCurdy, Evelyn Cornelius, Frances M. Gibson, Dorothy Thompson, Nelle Gilliam and Grace Gilreath.

Virginia Pendleton and Ruth Worthington have perfected circular keyboards for pianos.

Minnie Walker has assumed the position of dietitian at N. C. C. Her slogan of Saturday lunch sans goulash is heartily seconded by her assistants, Lucile Miller, Annie Richardson and Daily Barker.

The Chatauqua board tells an interested world that Ruth Edwards and Helen Justice, with Nina McDavid at the piano, are meeting with universal success in their concerts which are prefaced by community singing under the direction of Nonie Gordon and Mildred Doub.

On the roster of those who render service to their country as dispensers of learning are: Huldah Brinkley, who is rural school supervisor in the District of Columbia; Elizabeth Wilson, whose kindergarten methods have been widely imitated; and Alma McFarland, who returned to the Alma Mater as Miss Elliott's successor in the department of Political Science. Scattered throughout the country in institutions large and small are Blanche Raper, Rosa Pope, Nellie McGirt, Isabel McGill, Rebecca Lindley, Victoria Link, Paulette Hubbard, Alma Dellinger, Elizabeth Grant, Doris Hanvey, Lucile Monroe and Theresa Marks.

Louise Reavis and Corinne Pitt are the prosperous heads of a fast-growing syndicate of tea-houses. From the home office in Greensboro, we learn that the secret of the firm's success lies in its policy of selling real eggs even to college girls. Listed as managers of the various tea branches are: Pearle Gurley, Eva Spruill, Hattie Gidney, Fay Caveness, Glenn Morris, May Wells, Martha Hanchey, Opal Brown, Nita Williams, Vallie West, Ella Ormand, Eva Bowden, Mabel Welch, Irene Stevenson, Elizabeth Hornaday and Inez Swan.

A few of our illustrious class, for want of something better to do, have married the men of their choice and are active members of the Happy Though Married Club. Its sedate president, Mrs. Charles Lindburg, is somewhat of a high flyer, being unable to forget, wholly, the days when, as Lucy Taylor Baird, she was known far and wide for her capers. Elizabeth Norman is the charming wife of the president of the International Correspondence School, while Katherine Valentine rules with a rod of iron her very civil engineer husband. Margaret Lambe, on the contrary, has met her match, and is the obedient wife of an itinerant physician. On the rather lengthy records of the club are enrolled the names of Lanette McMurray, Musette Bradsher, Margaret Pierce, Philys Rogers, Agnes Simmons, M. Louise Smith, Estelle Reece, Frances Poole, Nevelyn Martin, Louise McMasters, Delorese McDaniels, Jennie Levy, Nell Kennet, Martha Johnston, Frances Hubbard, Margaret Hoyle, Alice Burt, Ethel Eudy, Rosa Lee Fordham, Louise Eagles, Ruth Currin, Elizabeth Case, Eula Mae Carpenter, Linnie Burkhead, Alice Wesley, Susie Walker, Hazel Mae Swinson, Lucy Green and Ruth Howard.

In tragic contrast to this long list of those who have become happily domesticated, is the list of those whose martial happiness has been destroyed by influences hereditary or environmental. These unfortunates (?) include: Charlotte Coppage, Helen Williams, Melba Stroupe, Anne Stokes, Beulah Stout, Mildred Trantham and Ina Stamper.

Everywhere are emblazoned notices of the "Queen's Handmaiden," the great opera written in Esperanto by Vallie West. Its company headed by Rosalie Goldstein and Mary Coon is making a good will tour of Nicaragua; the cast includes Inez Green, Thelma Garriss, Virginia Cozart, Laura Jack, Martha Perryman, Mary Roberts, Lettie Whitt, Rachel Cordle, Lois Clary, Mildred Trantham, Blanche Wade, Frances Shamburger, Mary Coe, Norma Black, Laurie Oliver, Ruth Owen, Mary Blake, Cornelia Cowell, Ava Lee Andrews, Blanche Collins, Lucy Crumpler, Hazel Dickinson, Thelma Williamson, Ethel Eudy, and Florence Gaskin. Accompanying the company as interpreter are Lucille Erwin and Nola Mae Fletcher whose proficiency in foreign languages has been recognized.

Clara Will has perfected a practical paraphernalia whereby discontented persons are transported to the moon for a change. Among those who have seized upon this opportunity to rid themselves of terrestial worries are Cornelia Vincent, Madge Tweed, Mary Marion Smith, Elberta Smith, Naomi Schell, Florence Rutherford, Sadie Proctor, Myrtle Porter, Katherine Porter, Florence Parkin, Alice Mitchell, Ava Gray Mewborn, Janie May Mann, Justina Renimon, Valera McCrummen, Maude Knight, Gertrude Jones, Lettie Gwyn, Eliza Henry and Eva Holder.

And now, enough. To this do we affix our hand and seal, and again withdraw afar to contemplate the affairs of men.

Last Will and Testament

WE, the Class of 1928, born and reared in the North Carolina College for Women, having arrived after four years of sojourning in these honored walls, at this certain point of departure; having been nourished by the choicest delicacies and most staple food for thought which this institution has ever before found its students capable of assimilating, and in the assimilation of the aforementioned, a profound respect for ourselves having sprung to life, believing that we represent the highest embodiment of fine native endowment, and manifold acquirements; filled with an overflowing pity for all those who must inevitably be acutely sensitive to the void which arises as we absent ourselves, and ever aware of and stimulated by our responsibility to contemporary humanity and posterity, flushed with the tint of altruism, and baptised in our own youth; ever unselfish in our desire to leave behind that which we cannot take with us—we do hereby, with full legal sanction, make our Last Will and Testament.

Article 1. To our successors in general, we leave the diurnal privilege of agitating over post office doors and new springing grass.

Article 2. As desciples of Job, we pass on to all students the fortitude to circumvent the new auditorium in accordance with lecture-concert regulations and, finding their particular door locked, retrace their pilgrimage to another entrance—and another, and yet another.

Article 3. In the interest of those who require extra siestas during the day, we will this bit of knowledge acquired through four years' investigation: rooms 213 and 68 McIver are best suited for gentle slumber since they are usually crowded and are hard to ventilate. Arrive early and avoid the rush for the back row.

Article 4. We yield to the Freshmen the frivolous pastime of inscribing on walls their sentiments of the moment, especially those before holidays. They may rest secure in the thought that each vacation will find earnest workers effacing the product of their inspiration and so presenting to the next class a clean slate for mottoes.

Article 5. To the Sophomores, we bequeath our doubtful diplomas from the experience school in the matter of selecting jerseys, blazers, sweaters, or fur coats for their class numerals. To add to the enjoyment of their parade in these garments, we hereby donate ear trumpets to catch all admiring applause for we fear their auricles have been strained from listening to chapel speeches from the balcony.

Article 6. Considering the incoming Juniors with sisterly pride, we hand over our theories of managing the Junior Shop and the Junior-Senior Banquet, and pay out with a free hand our good luck pennies to insure their getting little sisters as fine as those who came to us.

Article 7. For the Seniors who take our places, we leave, as sign posts along the way, our footprints. Some perhaps were not put down quite wisely or firmly, and these may be used for the red light of danger; others, too, may not have been as near the center of the road as reason and the best minds would desire, and may be taken as the white flare of caution; but there are a few, we feel, which, well spaced and cleanly cut, may stand for others as the calm green torch of safety and serve to guide the younger ones upon the road.

Article 8. Realizing also the unusual and worthy individual accumulations of talents and certain much-envied devices for obtaining desired ends, we do hereby give and bequeath these personal belongings:

1. The literary ability of "Molly Hall," to Martha M. Hall, so that she may be saved the embarrassment of having to admit that she ain't the author of the poems in the Coraddi.
2. We let fall on Ruth Clinard's worthy shoulders the Senior dignity of Virginia Sloan with the sincere hope that she may carry it as gracefully.
3. Kat Hardeman leaves her hefty kick, which has brought her great fame as a soccer player, to Edna Earle Lewis with a warning not to break her own bones, or anybody else's.
4. Fadean Pleasants' capacity and ability to talk at mass meetings is left to Rosalie Jacobi and Mell Efird—and anybody else who has the nerve to try it.
5. Puss Butler leaves her willow-like form, and her passion for physical education, to Reba Rhea, with the hope that she will take advantage of these opportunities and strive to outgrow her nickname.

Class of '29

Colors: Blue and White

Motto: "Onward"

Flower: Sweet Pea

Song

Three cheers for the Blue and White,
Striving always for the right,
Our aims are high and loyal,
To them we'll e'er be true—
And '29 moves "Onward"
Forever toward her goal.

To you, dear Alma Mater,
We pledge our hearts anew;
We'll honor, love and cherish
The days we've spent with you;
We'll love and serve you always,
Dear College, Here's to you!

Chorus

The Blue and White forever!
Our cry shall ever be
And "Onward! ever Onward,"
To our victory!

Song

Hail to our class,
The class of Green and White
We'll keep for e'er
Thy colors pure and bright.
Our motto "Truth"
Forever more shall be—
Truth to the world, our friends,
Ourselves, and thee.

O, Torch of Wisdom,
Thou shalt be our guide;
To follow thee
Will be our aim, our pride.
And Thirty, dear,
While following thy bright flame
Shall bear her banner on
To honor, to fame.

ELIZABETH BARNEY

Mascot of Class of '31

Colors: Red and White

Motto: Courage

Symbol: Sword

Flower: Red Sweetheart Roses and Lilies-of-the-Valley

Classe Songe

Long live, O Thirty-Ones,
  Our Class of Red and White.
We have brought, O College dear,
  Our torch of light.
Its flame burns with a love for you
  And a hope of great ideals;
So here we are with fighting swords
  And truth upon our shields.

We're here to both do and dare,
  And to work for all that's right.
Our motto of Courage
  We will hold while we fight.
We mean to come out victorious
  In our battles for the true!
So may our name be glorious
  Bringing fame, N. C., to you.

We shall march through the years
  Holding up our banner high.
The emblem of Courage
  Shall ever be our battle cry.
We will cheer for the Red and White
  Until the fight is done.
So here's a shout forever for
  Our dear old Thirty-One.

DIKE

Dikean Society Song

Dike, who speaks with reverberant grandeur,
Through listening portals of true womanhood,
Into thy vastness, we come now entrusting
Powers as yet latent with will's hope imbued,
Glad for the toiling, the common endeavor,
Glad for the wideness of ways to be won,
To do for the deed's sake, still keeping the vision,
Trusting secure in the love round us thrown.

Stamped with that beauty and light of thy image
We should go forth with a creative faith;
Builders potential and makers of highways,
Easing for others the paths they may take,
And as the sunset gives place to the sunrise,
After us cometh the child of the dawn
To fashion the fabric of dreams scarce completed
And serve thee forever, O light, farther on.

CORNELIA AND THE GRACCHI

Cornelian Society Song

In joy and praise come let us sing
With anthem clear and strong;
Let all Cornelian voices ring,
In free, exultant song.
Of pride for that fair name we bear,
Cornelia, glorious word,
To make us gladly do and dare,
When'er 'tis thought, when'er 'tis heard.
We'll onward, upward ever move,
Our footsteps forward pressed
Together move in sister-love
Unto the Mountain's crest,
To gain the fair, wide, spreading view
Which round the mountain lies,
And give us understanding new,
Enlightening our eager eyes.
May Cornelia's name have ne'er a stain
From any daughter's deed.
For her all glory will we gain
And give her honor's meed;
For firm and staunch we will e'er stand
Unto each other true,
And loyal to our noble band,
Hers, yea, her own, our whole lives through.

ALETHEIA

Aletheian Society Song

Ah! Truth, whose light throughout the countless years
Has been passed down to us from soul to soul,
We seek Thee, through toil and pain and tears,
Until we find Thee, that we may be whole.
A spark of Thee is born within each breast;
We strive to feed that tiny altar-fire
With other sparks we find upon our quest,
O Aletheia of our pure desire.

Thou art an ideal, boundless unattained,
While yet we strive to live Thee every day;
Thou art in all, and yet cannot be gained
Save by long search, and weary, and the way
Winds by strongholds of ignorance and sin.
But seeking Thee in all we know, at last
We'll break the gates that there may enter in
Thy light of understanding when our search is past.

ADELPHIA

Adelphian Society Song

Shoulder to shoulder, hearts filled with devotion
With purpose not aimless, but earnest and true;
United by all of the ties of deep friendship,
We bring, O Adelphia, our homage to you.

We pledge to you loyalty, long and unending,
Loyalty, which will be firm, will be true;
Devotion, we pledge you, that never will perish,
And love which through all coming time will endure.

With courage undaunted we'll march ever onward,
Up heights to be won, along parts strange and new,
But now and forever, one great band of sisters,
We'll be, O Adelphia, still loyal to you.

ELIZABETH LEROY . . . . . President
DORIS HANVEY . . . . . Vice-President
TWILA MAE DARDEN . . . . . Secretary and Treasurer
DR. HELEN BARTON . . . . . Faculty Sponsor

The purpose of the Mathematics Club is to stimulate and encourage an interest in mathematics and to give an insight into the fields of mathematics not touched upon in the classroom.

The club is composed of students who take advance work in mathematics, freshmen who meet certain scholarship requirements, and members of the mathematics faculty.

The Debating Club

RUTH JOHNSTON . . . . . President
MATTIE MOORE TAYLOR . . . . . Secretary
MABEL HOLLAND . . . . . Treasurer

The Debating Club was organized to meet the long-felt need of an organization on the campus to foster public speaking. It strives to teach organization of material as well as methods of presentation. Any one interested in debating and showing a certain amount of ability in that line may join. Though the organization is still young, we hope that it may become more and more a vital factor on the campus.

The Young Voters Club

FRANCES WILLIS . . . . . President
MAE WELLS . . . . . Vice-President
MARTHA WRIGHT . . . . . Secretary
ELIZABETH CROWDER . . . . . Treasurer

The Young Voters Club has been formed by Senior, Junior and Sophomore students who have felt the need of an organization on our campus which will satisfy the demands for political education to promote the participation of women in government. The Club purposes to arouse a keener interest in government by teaching and studying current political problems.

International Relations Club

MILDRED DAVIS . . . . . President
NANNIE THORNBURG . . . . . Secretary
CLEMENTINE BRODIE . . . . . Treasurer
KATHERINE VALENTINE . . Chairman Program Committee

The International Relations Club offers a medium for special study and discussion of national and international problems. Men and women who have made an intensive study in any of the subjects in which we are interested sometimes speak to us at our bi-monthly meetings.

Membership in the club is limited to those Juniors and Seniors who have shown particular interest in world affairs, and who have met the required standards of scholarship.

The Education Club

KATHERINE VALENTINE . . . . . President
VIVIAN KEARNS . . . . . Vice-President
MARGARET PIERCE . . . . . Secretary
MARTHA WRIGHT . . . . . Treasurer

Realizing the need for acquiring professional knowledge and professional pride, the Education Club was organized. Leading educators in the state are invited to speak at monthly meetings of the club, and current educational problems are studied and discussed with a view toward improving them.

The membership of the club, consisting as it does of Seniors doing practice teaching, specially selected Juniors, and members of the faculty, is especially fortunate. Not only do the members discuss common educational problems, but they learn to know each other in a more friendly and personal way than is customary between faculty and student. This is indeed a worthwhile organization. Profit as well as pleasure is possible to each member.

The French Club has a larger membership than any other club on the campus, eligibility being based on scholarship and interest. The purpose of the club is to increase interest in and knowledge of France—its costumes, literature and language. Various programs in French or relating to France are given at the semi-monthly meetings.

The Spanish Club is an organization of those students who are interested in Spanish life and culture for which little time is allowed in the class room. Faculty members and students work together to produce scenes of Spanish life and bits of Spanish literature. Through singing, dancing and festivals we try to catch something of the breath and charm of Spain, and thus better to appreciate the Spanish people.

In the Fall of 1927, a committee composed of five music students and five members of the music faculty started a movement for a new organization on the campus—the Opera Association of the North Carolina College for Women. Officers were elected and the association began plans for the presentation of an opera, "Robin Hood," to be given in the Spring. The chorus was chosen and work begun immediately. Dean Wade R. Brown, Miss Grace Van Dyke Moore, Mr. Benjamin S. Bates and Professor Henry H. Fuchs were responsible for directing the choruses, solos and orchestra. Professor W. R. Taylor, assisted by Mr. A. T. West, were given charge of the dramatic part of the production.

Here is a handful of wild
Grasses; we offer them, humbly,
To you . . . No art of cultivation
Has gone into their making,
No conscious care. They have Sprung from our minds as Spontaneously as the Spring
Breezes; their arrangement is Unstudied, perhaps unbeautiful.
Yet if there rises from these
A fragrance as of mossy places,
A freshness as of crystal
Pools—we shall be glad, as Little children are, at the Acceptance of simple gifts.

DEDICATION

To all of those unfortunates whose pictures are misplaced, whose names are distorted beyond recognition, and to those to whom due prominence has not been given, we consolingly dedicate this section.

"What makes you so musical lately?"

"Why, Miss Coolidge has been feeding us so much fish lately that I can sing to High Sea and know all the scales."

Miss Draper: "I'm afraid Betty isn't trying enough."

Mr. Shaftesbury: "Oh, you are quite wrong there. I assure you she is the most trying young person in the class."

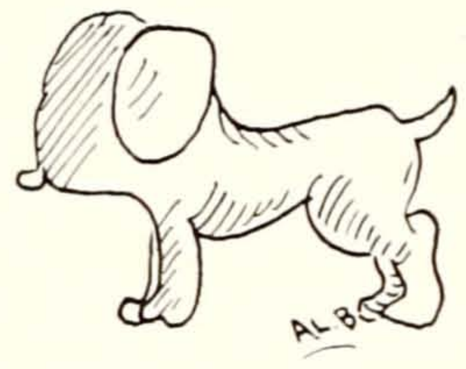
"No, I was never disappointed in love," said a certain bachelor member of our music faculty the other day. "Rather I was discouraged. I fell in love with a young lady once and finally screwed up courage to the proposing point. One night I said to her, 'Let's get married.'

"'Good lord,' said she, 'but who'd have us?'"



Miss Wright: "Name the zones, Susie."

Susie: "Frigid, temperate, torrid and o."

"Whither away?"

"To the infirmary to be examined for appendicitis."

"You don't seem worried."

"No, there won't be anything to it. I never passed an exam the first time in my life."

"Your roommate says she is a practical socialist."

"She must be. She wears my clothes, uses my lip-stick, and writes to my dates."

Miss Gould (in class): "Who was the greatest English actor?"

Soph: "Richard the Lion-Hearted."

"Oh, no!"

"Yes he was; the book says he starred in the Crusade and made a thousand knights run."

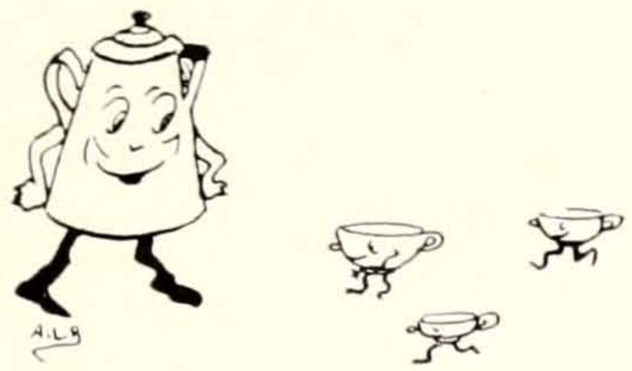
Farmer: "Say, don't you see that sign, 'Private! No fishing allowed'?"

Op Wolfe: "I never read anything I see marked 'Private.'"

Jokes



Too True

"When you reach your senior year you have senior better days."

Dean Smith (to Bible Class): "Who was the first man mentioned in the Bible?"
Bright pupil: "Chap one."

Dave: "Does the moon affect the tide?"
Fadean: "No. Only the untied."

Op: "Let's go to the library."
Annie Lee: "Sorry, I gotta study."

Clara: "What are they playing now?"
Tatey: "Beethovens Ninth Symphony."
Clara: "Oh! Have we missed the other eight?"

Gibby: "Why do you think you can work on a newspaper?"
Nadine: "I am able to type with two fingers and cuss."

(Upon seeing friend returning from a week-end): "Where did you go and where did you stay?"
Returning one: "I've been to Carolina, and I stayed up."

Dr. Keister: "Ever had Economics?"
Fuzzy Beam: "No, just measles and whooping cough."

Ed (giving a lesson in driving): "This controls the brake. It is put on quickly in case of emergency."
Co-ed: "I see. It's something like a kimona."

"What did that freshman's parents say when she was sent home after exams?"
"They congratulated the college on turning out such a fine girl."

Mr. Hall (in park): "Can you tell me if this plant belongs to the arbutus family?"
Sweet young thing: "No, sir, it belongs to the college."

Mildred Walker: "Do you room off campus?"
Nell Trotter: "Yes, but I get bored at class."

YOUNG LADIES

We are delighted to have you in Greensboro for four years, but we want you for life. When you have finished college, tell the young man who is fortunate enough to win you about Greensboro. Tell him of wonderful Irving Park, the residential section of national fame. Tell of Sedgefield, "The Incomparable," and when you have "sold him" on Greensboro, see us and select the home site.

Colds Are a Social Handicap

"Hello, Margie! how are you?"
"Oh, just dead with a cold!"
"Well, don't come near me, 'cause I catch every cold going."

No Dosing—Just Rub It On!

Why will you drag around day after day with watery eyes, a red nose and dry, cracked lips, all because of a detestable head cold, when it is such a nuisance in your social life?

At the first sign of a cold snuff a little Vicks up the nostrils—or if you have a bowl handy melt a little Vicks in hot water and inhale the vapors—and the clogged air passages will clear up immediately.

But if your cold has already gained headway, an application of Vicks over the throat and chest at bedtime will usually relieve the most stubborn cold over night.

SNAPS AND SCRAWLS

Dear Nell:
So glad to hear from you. Wish
I were able to write
in your interesting
year book. But
I'm so busy
I don't have time. I'm sure it will be a success.
Yours truly
Minnie Allard.

Nell, I think you are nice to ask me to write in your book. I have enjoyed knowing you
this year, and I am
wishing you great success in the future. Love
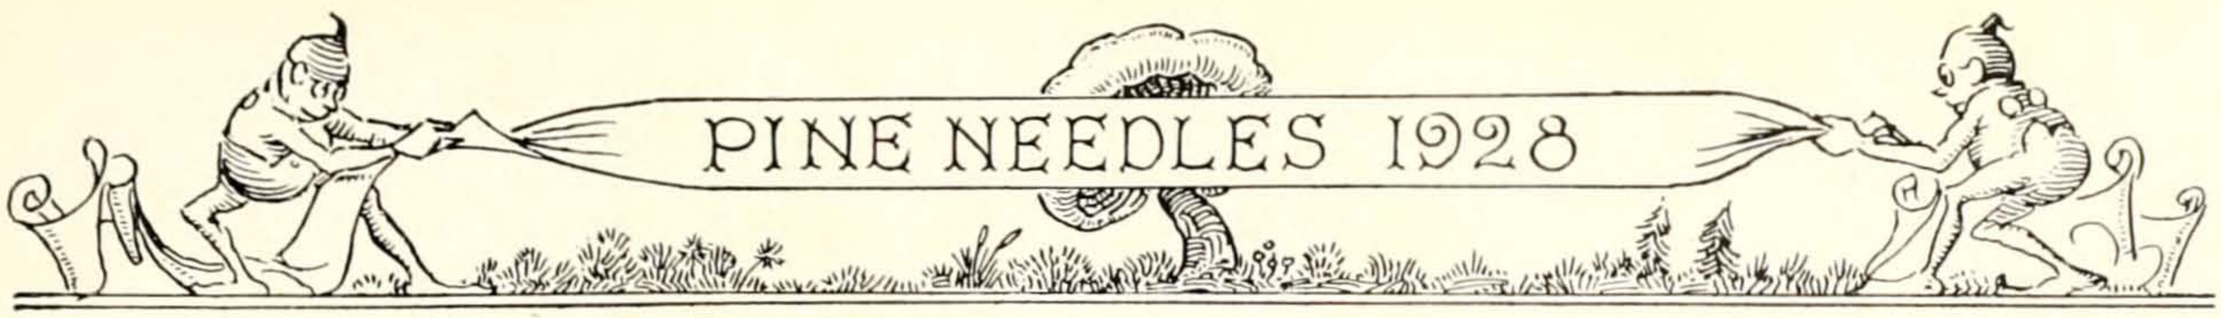
Minnie Allard.



SNAPS AND SCRAWLS

Best o' luck
to you, nell
and may we both
get a job.

SNAPS AND SCRAWLS

Well, I certainly am glad we roomed in the same dormitory this year. It has been a pleasure to know you. Please don't forget me now that we're leaving N.C.C.W. Write me sometime.

With best wishes,

Grace Whitworth.
