Dedication...

Teacher, Idealist, and scholar—he helped us build a bridge between college and society, teaching us in “ways that are called good—ways that always have been called good—ways that always will be called good.” With his soft voice, he gave us, by his faith in us and his belief in the inherent value of each student, reason for having faith in our abilities and our values. He taught us philosophy as the most comprehensive possible way of thinking about things, and religion as the balm of the world.

For giving us guidance, insight, courage, and philosophic understanding, and for being our friend, we humbly and gratefully dedicate the 1955 PINE NEEDLES to Dr. Franklin Holbrook McNutt.

Woman's College

The Melting Pot in Miniature . . . Aycock on Saturday night for the dateless few . . . a concert and lecture series to set us all agog . . . Cronyn and Tandy had coffee in our Soda Shop . . . steps of the Soda Shop filled with complaint and gossip . . . umbrellas caused the Tuesday traffic jam . . . blink of the five-minute Saturday night light . . . the inevitable white sweater to show off that new pin . . . the latest styles as modeled by the practice teachers . . . getting to know your favorite professor over coffee in Elliott Hall . . . the disappointment of an empty mail box and the thrill of more than one letter . . . the agreement to disagree with a rival hall . . . Dreamtime synonymous with 'lights out' . . . the vogueish look of Sunday mornings . . . the perfect evening for a date-less; a quiet evening with the latest "Guide for Brides" . . . Monday morning blues and Friday cheer . . . This, and more, is Woman's College.

Just a nice stroll in the rain . . .

Oh, that Hurricane Hazel!

And a redbird sang in the dogwood tree . . .

We go to classes, too!

New faces in Student Government

Our library at night

*The Deviney smile
has charmed them!*

Well Ballroom houses "displaced persons."

"You trumped my one!"

The Days . . .

TO MOST OF US the rain and the classes were old stuff, but to some of us it was new. We watched this year, as Hazel took her toll of our campus greenery, and classes took their toll of good grades. In spite of ourselves, wasn't 1954-55 a good year?

Suzanne, Joan, and Mac Cannon put the finishing touches on the PINE NEEDLES dummy.

On the outside looking in.

Fine scrambled eggs and two strips of bacon . . . m-m-m good!

It was a romantic night.

To Remember

SENIORS AND COMMERCIALS had June in their hearts—jobs and the future were very real. Juniors looked on enviously, as they waited for their day to come. The Sophomores gloried in the newness of belonging to a jacket, and the Freshmen waited gaily for those privileges that would soon be theirs.

Kat and Bobby build their dream house . . .

"Visible oculatory salutes!"

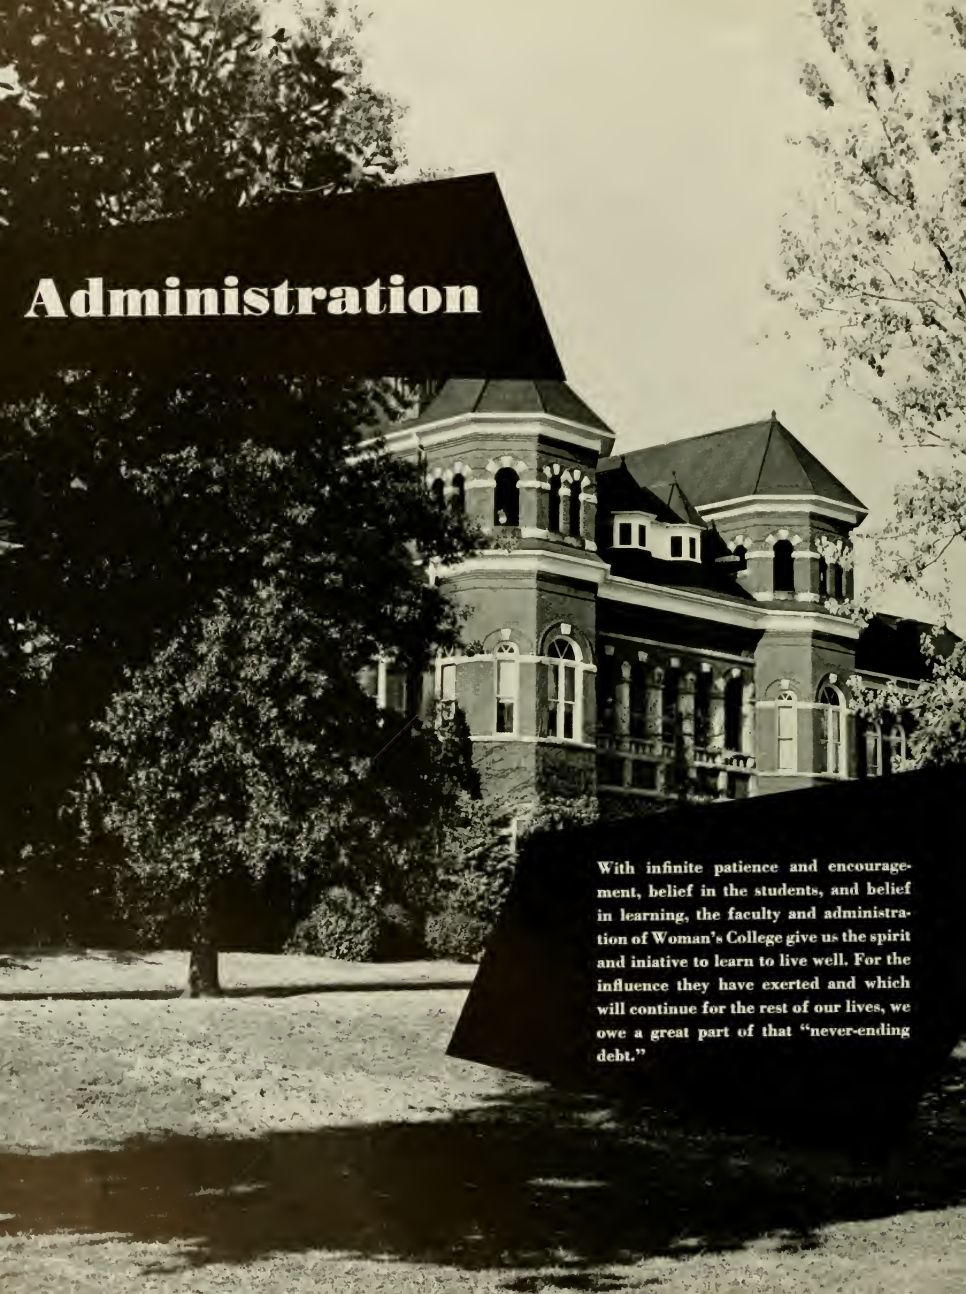

In Memoriam

WOMAN'S COLLEGE AND THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA have been blessed with a tradition of remarkable leadership in our governors. Both as Chief Executive of the State and as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina, Governor William Bradley Umstead fulfilled with distinction the trust of public service to which his life was dedicated.

A graduate of the University in the class of 1916, and member of a North Carolina family long prominent in public affairs, William Bradley Umstead so ordered his career as to bring his great strength and talents most effectively to bear on the welfare of our people. As a young man, he first taught in the public schools and then served with the United States Army during the First World War. Next came the legal training which was to serve him so well in public life. Entering politics as prosecuting attorney in county court, he later became Solicitor of the Tenth Judicial District, Congressman from the Sixth Congressional District, United States Senator, and eventually Governor.

Courage and devotion to duty were foremost among the qualities of character that predestined William Bradley Umstead for leadership. It was typical of the man that a grave illness, which struck him just as he embarked on his responsibilities as Governor, in no way deterred him from his resolution to fulfill the exacting duties of the highest office that his State could give him. In the year and a half that was left to him before he died in unselfish service, the mark of greatness was clearly evident upon his record. Our loss of his leadership at the height of his career is immeasurable. But many generations will share with us the testament of his enduring contributions to the welfare of North Carolina, her University, and her people.

Administration

With infinite patience and encouragement, belief in the students, and belief in learning, the faculty and administration of Woman's College give us the spirit and initiative to learn to live well. For the influence they have exerted and which will continue for the rest of our lives, we owe a great part of that "never-ending debt."

GORDON GRAY

President of the Consolidated University of North Carolina

Our President

PRESIDENT GORDON GRAY, a native Tar Heel, and a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of North Carolina, became president of his alma mater in 1950. His excellent background as a newspaper publisher and Secretary of the Army in 1947 through 1950 well prepared him for this present responsibility. Equally well-known in national circles, he has done much for our Greater University, for our state, and for our country.

Luther H. Hodges

Governor

THE STUDENTS OF WOMAN'S COLLEGE welcome Governor Luther H. Hodges as Chief Executive of our State, and his wife, Martha Blakeney Hodges, an alumna of this College, as our First Lady. Upon the death of Governor Umstead in November, 1954, he succeeded to the higher office, to which he brings his mature experience and ripper wisdom.

The Woman's College looks to Governor Hodges, our good friend for many years and one who has demonstrated his devotion and vision, for guidance in the future development of our College.

Edward Kidder Graham

Chancellor

JUST AS EDWARD KIDDER GRAHAM has been a great force in boosting the progress of education, he has been an outstanding leader and director of the Woman's College campus. After receiving his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of North Carolina, he served as Dean of Faculties at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri. He came to the Woman's College as Chancellor in 1950. His friendliness and his ready wit and charm have made him a real part of this campus—a friend as well as an administrator.

Katherine Taylor

Dean of Women

OUR EXPERT DEAN OF STUDENTS, Katherine Taylor, who plays a vital part in all phases of our school life, is a former member of the Woman's College faculty. The experience she gained in this position along with her consideration, her interest, and her keen insight into campus affairs, contribute to her being the respected and admired link between the student body and the administration.

Mereb Mossman

Dean of Instruction

MISS MEREB E. MOSSMAN, our able Dean of Instruction, was born in Kansas and attended Morningside College in Iowa and the University of Chicago. Her excellent background of experience in the field of sociology and her vigorous personality help to make her a valuable asset to our college.

BEHIND THE SCENES these people carry out a tremendous portion of the administrative duties of Woman's College. We are greatly indebted to them for our fine graduate school, our efficiently run infirmary, the many, many meals so carefully prepared, the publicity of our affairs, the intricately detailed budget upon which we operate, our well-equipped and well-run library, and the attitudes toward us by those who are outside our college sphere. To them we wish to express our admiration, respect, and thanks for their undertakings, so often left unnoticed in the hubbub of our college activities.

House Presidents and Counselors

LIFE IN W.C.'S DORMS is hectic and busy, but wonderful and unforgettable. Despite the many call downs and hall boards and the lectures at house and section meetings, we realize that our house presidents and our house counselors, who give up so much to share this wonderful part of college life with us, are helping us to develop into solid and democratic Americans. While they scold us for leaving coke bottles in halls and window sills and breaking closed study, they also overlook our water fights and other practical jokes. We'll always remember and treasure the small things that make up dorm life—surprise birthday parties, bridge games, the sound of stampeding feet when a telephone call is announced over the amplifier, teas in the parlor, house meetings complete with weird attire and hilarious talent shows, alarm clocks suddenly pealing in the middle of the night, the argyles we began last fall, umbrellas lining the halls on rainy days, and the dash for tubs five minutes before lights out. The house counselors will long remember our demonstrations on the nights before vacations began. "Is that the Bunny Hop or the ceiling falling?"

WHAT WOULD WE HAVE DONE WITHOUT KITCHENS in the dorms to make a decent meal once in a while or just fix a snack to relieve the strain of studying all night? The days of the water shortage were probably the only time anyone walked into the laundry or shampoo rooms and found a dry floor. We owe a lot to the maids who were always there when some disaster occurred. "Beulah, I know I saw a mop in this closet last month!"

ANYONE ATTENDING an R.A. volleyball or basketball game would assure you that W.C. girls have plenty of dorm spirit and loyalty. For all this, we are indebted to our house presidents, who were always willing to take a few minutes to answer our questions and boost our morales, and to our house counselors, who in the midst of running the dorm, always had a friendly word for a member of "her family." To them we can show our sincere appreciation only by saying "thanks."

Act IV . . .

WITH DEANIE PLAYING THE LEAD, and our own Miss Walker as stage-manager, the class of '55 took its place on stage for this, our last appearance.

The curtain rose in September, when even heat and drought couldn't dim our, "Look Ma, we're Seniors!" glow. By October we knew why underclassmen think the Seniors look so old. Practice teachers found themselves coping with real pupils, lesson plans, and P.T.A. meetings. Coordinating took its quota of midnight lights and pre-dawn coffee and cigarettes. We took time from the books to go to class meetings, where we defied tradition—the Queen and her court took the place of traditional May Day. There were informal nights at Elliott Hall, concerts and lectures by famous personalities. We burned the candle at both ends, and gloried in its light. Applauding the Juniors on their night, we realized we were seeing our last Junior Show.

The Finale

THE ADVENT OF CHRISTMAS brought more "last times" for us—the dance in Elliott Hall, the concert, dorm dances and open houses. We filed our "Blue Cards" in the Placement Office, our vacation departure cards in the dorm, and went home wondering where we'd be next Christmas.

Second Semester found many of us reading Bride's Book and dreaming of our own weddings. We entertained the campus with the greatest Senior Show; and Elliott Hall ballroom became the setting for royalty and romance as Ellen and the court reigned over the Junior-Senior ball.

The day our caps and gowns arrived we were as excited as the Sophomores on class jacket day. Then came last mass meeting and we were marching into Aycock to the strains of the Sister Song. Class Day meant white dresses, daisies, and a sudden nostalgia as we watched our red and white lowered to make way for the lavender and white. We elected everlasting officers, and became members of the Alumnae Association.

Graduation came. We were happy, sad, and proud. Our diplomas signified the achievements of our four years at W. C.; four years of living, working, and playing together; four years of preparation for the life ahead of us; the years we'll remember as—the best years.

Getting those credits straightened out.

The day starts at 7:00 . . .

. . . and classes begin at 8:00.

A moment in the soda shop to break the class routine

"Dear Folks . . .

. . . Have a darling date tonight!"

President

NO BUSINESS LIKE SHOW BUSINESS, and nothing like the spirit of our show as Jap-happy Juniors sang of the Woman's College of the U. of Titipu, a rollicking satire on Student Government in the manner of Gilbert and Sullivan. We were Sophistication in black jackets, and on our fingers were black rings rimmed in gold—distinctive upper-classmen. Fall of 1954 marked the end of our project to help a Korean girl through a Korean aid society, and our class officers and committees bustled about with plans to increase the treasury. Commercials did the dirty work in Junior rooms on JAC Day, and we got together with our sisters for the first time at the Elliott Hall party.

Junior Class

Number one qualification for a House President

This even outsells True Confessions!

This is an EDUCATION???

FIRST THRILL OF THE YEAR was signing up for MAJOR courses — now WE could talk about sociology, and primary education, and English, and history. Halls at night sounded like symphonies of typewriters and flutaphones, and from the regions below drifted strains of "Mary had a little lamb." With unlimited cuts in sight we spent weary hours in the library, and looked toward the honors of Phi Beta Kappa, Golden Chain and our own honorary organization which would finally be possible. Suddenly it was time for elections and we realized that Student Government leadership was our responsibility — we could and would step into that empty pair of shoes left by the class of '55.

We longed for a letter in that dusty box, hungrily trudged to those eight o'clocks we thought Juniors didn't have, wondered whether this was the right major after all, and who had said Junior year was such a breeze. Finally spring came and music, moonlight and mood set off the Queen and her court at the Junior-Senior, adding more of those sequined memories to our scrapbooks of W. C. We laughed, we played, we worked, we loved and the year passed. "For Fifty-Six will rule!" proclaimed the rising Seniors in that blissful state of security — the knowledge of one more year at W. C. before facing the reality of jobs and Future.

Not beautiful, but no fire hazard!

Up in the morning with some struggle . . .

. . . and on the way to class

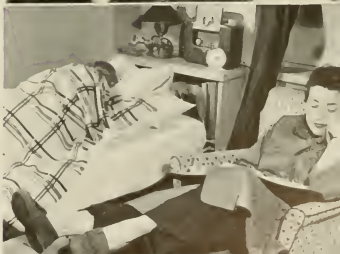

Work (?) hard all day . . .

. . . then boost the morale with a big night out . . .

. . . and return to burn the "midnight oil."

Buddies 'til the end!

U's Sophomores ain't lockin' a thing!

AUTUMN 1954 USHERED IN A NEW W. C. YEAR of endless blue skies (or to be realistic—no rain). There was blue also in the thoughts of the sophomores—navy blue! Hurricane Hazel came and put an end to the drought, and the jacket salesman came and anything but ended our wistful thinking. Thanksgiving found us trying desperately to look sophisticated in our newly acquired navy blues while we pushed and twisted protesting suitcases and hat boxes into car trunks and bus racks. Wasn't it wonderful though, to walk down "home town street" with squared shoulders and proud hearts?

Yes, the life of a sophomore has its proud moments, its ironic incidents, and its many hours of study. Who was the optimist who declared that after freshman year, all classes were "crips"? Maybe we just took the wrong courses! At any rate, we learned a lot; and we really began to feel "at home" in classes as well as in the soda shop and in campus organizations.

This feeling of belonging reached its peak, not on Monday, nor Friday, but on Rat Day. Of course we belong! The rats told us so! They wore our blue and white, sang our praises, and scurried to do our every bidding.

But we didn't devote our whole year's attention to studying books and rats. In the fall we made history when our gallant counterparts at Chapel Hill invited us over for the first exclusively sophomore dance between W. C. and U.N.C.

Sophomore Class

IN THE MONTH OF VALENTINES, we each felt like the queen of hearts at our very own dance in Elliott Hall. The many colored lights reflected our scintillated excitement as we danced the week-end away to the "week-day" music of the Soda Shop's juke box.

In years to come we will always remember those supreme moments of our Sophomore year. Yet, we will also remember those little things which made their claim to fame in smaller ways. Such events as moving downstairs in Aycock, and the thoughts of meeting next year with our major advisors will glow in our memories when the lighted dance floor has lost its exciting sparkle.

As we watched the red jackets march out of mass meeting for the last time we realized that next year we would play the second lead in the drama of Woman's College—in a setting of charcoal gray and navy blue. Our farewell to our sister class was to the familiar strains of the Sister Song. For us, it meant "goodbye" for the first time.

Looking back, we can remember this, our Sophomore year at Woman's College, as one of the fullest and most rewarding years we've ever known. During these nine months we have climbed a little higher on the scale of maturity, and we, the class of 1957, can look forward to our Junior year with confidence, and with hopes of achieving the third quarter of our reasons for being here.

That's some "parallel reading" you're doing there girls!

Let us know if you pass, kid.

Combine: 1 set of butterflies (the kind one has before such occasions as the Elliott Hall Ball or one's first exams), 1 recurring case of home sickness, endless numbers of letters to relatives and friends at home, the excitement of that first weekend at Chapel Hill, with: a fantastic network of rules and regulations, a million and one themes, recitations, and vocabulary lists, the realization of how very much there is to learn, and there before you, you find a generous helping of the excitement of freshmen year at W. C.

AND WHAT A YEAR OUR FRESHMAN YEAR HAS BEEN! We have studied and "crammed," but we have also had fun and lots of it. Freshman year is not half so bad when you are at a school like W. C., and we found it out in short order. After we had learned the ropes (i.e., how many minutes it takes to get from the dorm to McIver if one is late; the shortest route to the post office from any point on campus; that one must sign a white permission slip to go away for a week-end — or is it a green one?), became acclimated to our new surroundings and accustomed ourselves to the fact that we were going to have to really buckle down and study, we found time to begin taking part in the many wonderful extra-curricular activities in which we were offered a chance to participate.

First we had some catching up to do. We were without a class song, without a motto, and without officers. Undaunted and unruffled we soon chose our leaders, selected a motto, and would upon the slightest provocation unite in a vibrant rendition of our newly written chanson.

WE WERE NOW ALL SET, or at least so we thought. The sophomores did not agree, however, and made their point by proclaiming "Rat Day." You do not begin to realize just how many upper classmen there are until you start dodging and kowtowing to them on "Rat Day."

Getting a good attendance at class meetings was our downfall. It always seemed so hard for all of us to get there. In our effort to stimulate attendance we decided that the three dorms having the smallest number of girls present at the meetings would have to give a party for the rest. As a result Shaw, Coit, and Jamison threw a wonderful party right before we all headed homeward for the Christmas holidays.

During exams we chose as our class project, to set up booths in the dorms to sell food. A very enterprising undertaking which was not only fun but quite lucrative.

While we attended many all-school functions throughout the year, April was a big month because on the 16th we had our big freshman dance followed by the University Sermon on the morning of the 17th. It was our freshman week-end, and it was wonderful.

FOR THE CLASS OF '58, freshman year is all over. And as we look back over this, our first year as college women, we can smile a bit indulgently as we recall the sad droop of our tails on "Rat Day," that feeling of uncertainty which so enveloped us during our first few weeks here, the terror of our first final exams, and the proverbial "Freshman Blues."

We have lived through it all, and we feel very proud of the way we came through it. Nothing will ever replace our memories of freshman year, but we eagerly await to add to these, recollections of future years at W. C.

The animals (rats) perform for those horrible upperclassmen.

WE, THE WHITE JACKETS, had the unique distinction of being freshmen and seniors in the same year. First semester we faithfully trudged into our rooms at seven-thirty, but second semester, that was a different matter! Outside our hall were cars and men, for now we could date while our "former" equals — the freshmen — had their study hours. We knitted socks and made stoles — in the hours we weren't typing, or accounting, or transcribing. Looking back, though, it wasn't so bad, after all.

We were the class of the traditional song — the class of only two halls. In Hinshaw and Kirkland, we found friends we never will lose — and in class we became competent and efficient secretaries, prepared for a bright future in the world of business — or marriage.

At first it was hard to adjust. Soon, though, we began to take the strain of an 8 o'clock, the tension of tests, and the restrictions of the hand-book in stride. We became a part of this little world to itself, and the things we had once feared and dreaded became a part of the past. Forgotten were the unpleasant moments — supreme were the times that set apart this year as a special one filled with pleasant surprises and fruitful promises.

SEPTEMBER WE MOVED INTO THE HALL — never having seen so many new faces. Visiting around we soon found, though, that here were girls who were essentially the same as the ones we hated to leave in our home towns. The month passed (after that hilariously rushed week of orientation) and there we were in the midst of October with grades flying in this way and that. Early November found us, complete with wrong-side-out clothes, doing the biddings of our Junior Sisters, and tapping it off with a party in Elliott Hall. November was big in another way, too, for that was the month of maroon-trimmed white jackets. Weren't we proud as we ran through the dining hall shouting, "All hail, hail to W. C."? With pride we showed them off, casually, we hoped, in our home towns over Thanksgiving. Then we were back — W. C., studies, and more closed nights. But we blinked our eyes, and lo! and behold! the eighteenth of December was upon us and Christmas holidays just beginning. Two weeks of parties, dates, and ceaseless talk. But it ended, and we were again back at W. C. What a difference though! So many girls seemed to have flashlights on the third finger, left hand. Now June weddings were the topic on the weekday agenda for gossip sessions.

Ten day exams — remember? And then another holiday. Between semesters — could you believe it? But it was, and half our time at Woman's College was gone. We took our place, with relief, as upperclassmen, with all the privileges it meant. Time flew as it had first semester, and before we knew it, it was spring holidays — a time for more rest, fun — and a time for wedding planning. Oh, what a time we had!! And we came back as seniors! Butterflies fluttered in many a stomach as we thought of certificates and diplomas in accounting or shorthand. The time would be here soon enough, we figured, and we plowed merrily on our way through volumes and volumes of forms and briefs and problems.

At last May came, with finals and notices. We had made it! We were distinctive college women — prepared for the demands that would be made for us — and we were proud. We were proud of what our being here had meant, in growth and knowledge, and we were proud and humble in saying that we truly owe to the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina our "love and loyalty."

THROUGH THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION the students of The Woman's College of the University of North Carolina have an excellent opportunity for self government. The students who take an interest in their government, participate in this government and feel a responsibility for Student Government, can experience the actual workings of a democratic society after having had such an experience. The task of Student Government is to help the morale and strength of the nation through faith in a democratic way of life. Students, faculty, and administration plan and work cooperatively to promote the general welfare at Woman's College.

All officers and students of Woman's College take the pledge of the Student Government Association: "I hereby pledge to every citizen of this community to use all my powers of head, heart, and hand to strengthen and uphold the ideals of Student Government, which are individual responsibility, loyalty, and honor."

THE PURPOSE OF JUDICIAL BOARD is to work in cooperation with Honor Board to establish and carry out the Honor Policy in a manner which is most beneficial and educational to the individuals of this campus and to the community as a whole.

The organization of Student Government provides for the separate functioning of the Legislative and Judicial branches coordinated through the Executive branch. The Judicial System is composed of the individual Hall Boards which deal with minor infractions of the technical regulations and the Judicial Board which deals with serious infractions of the Honor Policy.

The Judicial Chairman, elected by the student body, is the head of the Judicial System. Members of Judicial Board are appointed from the three upper classes. The Secretary of SGA keeps the records of the meetings and cases, while the student body President is an ex-officio voting member of the Board.

Meetings are held on Monday nights in the Pecky Cypress Room of the Alumnae House. The Board has been guided this year by the capable, sympathetic, and understanding help of Miss Laura Anderton, faculty advisor.

The Board makes every effort to carry out its functions in an understanding, personal, and corrective manner, while retaining the formality and seriousness necessary to its purpose.

Legislature

STUDENT GOVERNMENT, the official organ of student action and opinion, promptly came to order at 7:15 p.m. the first and third Wednesdays of each month in the spacious Legislature room of Elliott Hall. With suggestions that "the speaker please rise" and reminders that "the amendment is not germane," order was obtained by Legislature Chairman Mary Owens Bell in collaboration with that reliable and unimpeachable source of authority, Robert's Rules of Order. Proposals affecting college and community, extra-curricular activities, student-faculty relations, and inter-collegiate contacts, swelled the agenda and received a thorough mulling over by the representatives in Legislature. Pat Davis, the conscientious and efficient Secretary of Legislature, recorded the innumerable motions, discussions, observations, and amendments to the amendments that came from the floor of Legislature. Throughout the year Legislature set up various special committees and sub-committees charged with preliminary tasks necessary to expedite particular programs. On a similar plane were the Standing Committees established in years past with charges to administer standing programs set up by Legislature. The members of Student Legislature, 1954-55, experienced inspiration, deliberation, and compensation in their continued efforts to render an over-all program of far-reaching benefits to Woman's College.

Young Women's Christian Association

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION is the nonsectarian religious organization on the campus and it welcomes every girl as a member. The "Y" Cabinet, the legislative body of the association, is composed of the officers and committee heads, with Mrs. Ruth A. Clarke, acting as advisor. All that we do, whether projects, programs, or socials, is carried out with a higher goal in mind, "to unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through the growing knowledge of God." We want to make Y.W.C.A. meaningful to all students, and we want you to include it in your college activities. We welcome you into our fellowship.

The program meetings are for the entire student body. They are centered around the following: Basic Christian Beliefs; Faith, Sex, and Love; You in the University; You and Your Struggle For Freedom; Where Are You? and You, The Nation, and The World.

Inter-Faith Council

"WHAT IS THE STUDENT'S NEED, and how can it best be filled?" was the theme for the work of the Inter-Faith council this year. Faith, inspiration, integration, Friday night suppers, University Sermons, and dorm devotions were only a few of the highlights in religious activities encouraged by the Council. All were designed to help religion become an essential phase of each student's life at W. C.

With Mrs. Ruth A. Clarke, advisor, and twenty-eight enthusiastic members—the president and one representative from each denominational group, the Y.W.C.A., and the Dormitory Devotions Chairmen Committee—the Inter-Faith Council has worked to co-ordinate religion on the campus, to help each denominational group when help was needed, and to sponsor activities of a campus-wide nature.

Changes were made, such as the organization of the Dormitory Devotions Chairmen Committee and the presentation of four programs on Religion and the Intellectual Disciplines. Ideas were carried forward from the past, such as the publication of a monthly bulletin of all religious events, and the presentation of the Inter-Faith Forum, entitled "The Significance of Religion in Human Affairs."

Service League

SERVICE LEAGUE, an organization unique to the Woman's College campus, unifies the function of many organizations on other campuses. The Service League was chartered during World War II by the Student Government Association and has been working hard since the day it was organized. Its chairman is appointed by the President of Student Government. The advisory group is appointed by the chairman of Service League, and each advisor is chairman of a particular project committee. Each dorm representative is elected by her dorm. The Town Student's Association also is represented by its elected member to Service League. The League has three faculty advisors.

The purpose of Service League is two-fold: To serve the campus and the students; and to serve those less fortunate than we. By means of various drives and projects, Service League strives to accomplish these goals.

BETTY HOBBS
Chairman

Since all charity organizations seek recognition of college campuses, Service League conducts an annual Purse Drive, the proceeds of which are apportioned by the League to the Foreign Student Scholarship Fund, World University Service Fund, CARE, Community Chest, American Friends Association, National Scholarship Fund for Negro Students, Cancer, Polio, Red Cross, and the American Heart Association.

Other drives sponsored by the League are: A clean-up campaign for grounds and the Soda Shop, the Book Exchange, the Bloodmobile, and the Clothing Drive.

The motto for Service League this year was "Service Through Education and Participation."

Elliott Hall Council

A PLACE FOR EVERYONE — that is the motto of Elliott Hall as it strives to integrate the social activities on campus. Realizing that student needs vary from the entertaining to the cultural, the Council attempts to present a diversified and flexible program which will include every student.

The Elliott Hall Council functions as the policy-making board of managers of Elliott Hall. It consists of the president of Elliott Hall, a representative elected from each residence hall, and one representative from the Town Student's Association. The director of Elliott Hall, her assistant, two counselors, and three faculty members act as advisors to the Council in its administrative functions.

Closely integrated with the Council are the chairmen of the seven committees which organize the student activity programs of Elliott Hall. The Fine Arts Committee, composed of students interested in writing, music, drama, and dance, sponsors discussions and lectures on the fine arts, concerts, art exhibits, and a student glee club. The Faculty-Student Social Committee works toward a better relationship between the faculty and students on an informal social basis. This is accomplished through the weekly coffee hours, faculty-student bridge night, and personal invitations to the faculty for various social events. The Publicity Committee is responsible for publicizing all phases of Elliott Hall activities. The Poster Committee makes all the posters advertising Elliott Hall functions and performs a campus-wide service by making posters for any organization for a nominal fee. The Discussion Group Committee works with the Fine Arts Committee in sponsoring informal discussions and panels on topics of interest to the campus. The Entertainment Committee centers its activity in the game room by sponsoring Saturday night entertainment and informal dances. The Special Events Committee works with various campus and university groups and sponsors the big informal dances in Elliott Hall.

Elliott Hall is for the students, and any student may take part in its functioning by joining a committee. Its program is a constant endeavor to meet student needs and desires.

University Council

Fun For Us

THE CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY COUNCIL represents the opinions, interests, and welfare of the student bodies of the Consolidated University of North Carolina. It acts as a liaison between the students and the administrations of State College in Raleigh, the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, co-ordinating and initiating activities which promote harmonious relations between the three groups.

The eleven members from the three schools meet quarterly to discuss important issues which are considered by them to be common to all the students concerned. These issues are taken, by an executive committee, to Gordon Gray, President of the Consolidated University, for consultation.

Remember the fun we had at the three "C. U. Days"? The basketball game, the football game, and the dances? Remember those crowded buses enroute to Chapel Hill and Raleigh, packed to the brim with singing, high-spirited girls? These were the accomplishments of your C. U. Council. We hope you liked it!

Town Students

WE LIVE IN ELLIOTT HALL! Yes, Town Students do live in Elliott Hall. From their arrival early in the morning (6:45 a.m. is the earliest on record) to the closing hour, Town Students eat, drink, sleep, and make merry in the student union building. The Town Students' Lounge is the mecca of all Town Students and a red hot bridge game or knitting session is usually in progress. Located on the ground floor of Elliott Hall, it has an adjoining powder and locker rooms.

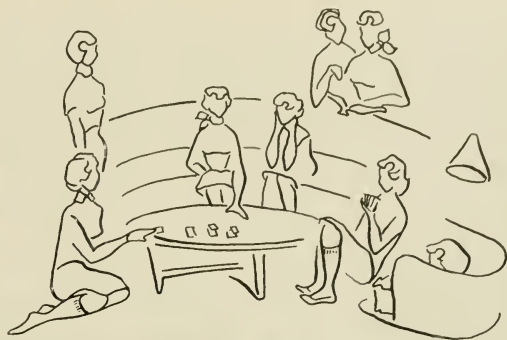

All students not living on campus are members of the Town Students' Association. Obeying all college rules except those of the residence halls, the Town Students are an integral part of campus life. Under the able leadership of Becky Squires, president of the organization, and Christine Hill, vice-president, the group has had a good year. Records and treasury are cared for by Chris Velonis, and Jeri Miller is the tireless organizer of all social functions. Miss Prondecki is the able and patient advisor of the "town girls."

First-party planned by Jeri this year was the tea for freshmen and commercials. Upperclassmen eagerly attended the tea in order to catch up on summer gossip and to canvass the new students for talent in bridge or basketball. A Halloween party (will anyone ever forget the jack-o-lantern smoking the Phillip Morris?), Christmas parties, and, the highlight of the year, the formal dance in the spring are the main social activities of the year.

Living in homes off campus and in Elliott Hall on campus has its confusing moments, too. They have mail boxes in two places, but even at that, the mail still seems to get mixed up. Even so, the Town Students manage to take part in all of the "on campus" phases of Student Government. They get back from lunch or supper to help put out the Cary and the Pine Needles, plus the million and one committee meetings that seem always to conflict. The influence and insight of their view of the campus and its activities gives new life and better perspective to the all-round purpose of filling the needs of the whole community. Without them the balance between this and the "outside" would be incomplete. It can truly be said that the Town Students lead "double lives," lives which contribute to well-rounded individuals.

GOLDEN CHAIN

Golden Chain embodies the seven high ideals of leadership, scholarship, service, judgment, tolerance, magnanimity, and character. It seeks to recognize those students in whom these ideals are characteristic.

Each year members of Golden Chain become "ambassadors of good will" for our college as they go out to various high schools, giving prospective students an insight into the benefits of Woman's College. Every year Golden Chain writes a spring letter to the old members and gives a Graduation Day Breakfast for those members who have already graduated.

The capable advisors to Golden Chain are Miss Bernice Draper, Miss Nancy Porter, and Dr. Warren Ashby who have served them well. Honorary members are Mrs. Julius Cone, Dr. W. C. Jackson, Mrs. Betty Jester, Miss Katherine Taylor, and Dr. Edward Kidder Graham.

The Carolinian

CARY VISITS . . . The Carolinian. It is any Monday night . . . Just after supper, Henny trudges up to the Cary office and picks up the envelope to examine the proof. Not much this week . . . the printer didn't send back the hold-overs from last week. One lone proof-reader saunters in to wade through a pile of typographical errors.

Fifteen minutes later Patsy dashes in, followed by three faithful reporters. She dashes to the phone to call a fourth not-so-faithful one to find out where her story is. She gives Henny a brief report on the state of the campus and dashes off somewhere, bumping into Claire on the way out. Claire enters, followed by Helen, who has a photograph of the dean in one hand and a sticky bun in the other. Both settle down with some headless stories.

A columnist, a headwriter, and Marvelous Amy Brown enter. Each grabs a desk in a different office.

A loud noise is heard from the stairwell, and in run Louise and Lynda, laughing and joking. They go down the hall to the R.A. office, close the door, fill the room with smoke, and talk about unwritten editorials. They are soon interrupted as Henny comes flying through the inner offices asking which shall be page one lead: Arts Festival or Legislature's latest decision. P. comes up with a real scoop—seven-column banner stuff. After much consultation, it is decided that all three stories shall be given seven-column banners, and the masthead will be dropped to the bottom of the page.

TWENTY-FIVE MINUTES OF ONE . . . less than half an hour to go . . . the Cary editors glance at an unfilled paper. What can be done with the holes on pages three and six? Everything is in, including Dottie's Sports.

GLOP! Everybody burrows madly through the nine-hundred pages of back issues, exchange papers, and circulars looking for most anything to fill the holes. Marvelous Amy gets inspired and dashes off a feature, filling page three. The other hole is filled with folders from the N.S.A. office.

Henny folds up the dummy sheets and the galley for the printer. Somebody mutters, "That's it." somebody flicks off the light, and the weary staff members trudge down the stairs.

CORADDI

DEBORA MARCUS

SUE DUNHAM
Business Manager

The Coraddi is our campus literary magazine, published four times during the year. A glance at any issue reveals talent in fiction, poetry, and graphic art which are found at Woman's College. While its main purpose is to provide an outlet for student expression, Coraddi also aspires to produce an interesting, readable magazine.

Both the literary and business staffs held tryouts early in the fall and were rewarded with a large number of capable girls who participated. This resulted in an expansion of both staffs. As for Coraddi material, contributors were no problem and many students saw their work in print.

After this material had been placed on the dummy, the printer was its next stop. Fortunately, he was a patient man and after the usual last minute copy rushes, could still muster a friendly smile when Coraddi was mentioned. Layout changes were made as they became the property of the art editor as well as the editor-in-chief.

Of course the business staff had its hands full trying to stay out of the path of its creditors. The year ended with them singing praises to their National Advertisers who remained close at hand without a whimper. Now quite humorous, but not so at the time was the mysterious displacement of the exchange and circulation lists. Nevertheless, using the trial and error method Coraddi made its way into many colleges over the country.

Yes, Coraddi had a good year. The Coraddi Club was reinstated under the firm hand of Suzanne Rogers and continued to hold discussions and informal meetings for interested students. The staffs were enlarged and both managed to come up with enough material for their assigned year. There were a few changes in policy but these were aimed for the benefit of contributors as well as the reading public. The staff realizes that those many late nights spent with coffee pot and sagging lids were not wasted as they did their best to produce four good Coraddis.

MICHAEL CASEY
Director of the Theatre

WHAT KIND OF YEAR HAS IT BEEN? For our theatre it has been a good year—a year of “firsts.” The department of Drama was established and with it came our new advisors, Miss Niggli and Mr. Casey. The Students’ Theatre, featuring all student work in writing, directing, and acting was organized. During first semester “Choruses In The Theatre” and an outdoor Christmas Pageant were presented.

Our opening production in Aycock was “Children of Bride.” This was the first time we had the privilege of working with both the playwright and a professional actress. For Arts Festival our play was “The House of Bernarda Alba,” and we sponsored the Piedmont District Festival of the Carolina Dramatic Association.

It has been a good year in other respects. The Theatre has become a more integral part of Woman’s College life through participation of students from every department and through heightened interest of the whole college community. Any student can find a place in our organization. The plays that we choose offer opportunities for acting to girls of all ranges of experience; and, backstage there are diverse activities for everyone interested.

In summing up our year of the Theatre we shall attempt to answer the people who ask, “Why do you like it so much?” The answer lies in the satisfaction that comes of working with a group of people dedicated to a common goal, and in the sense of accomplishment resultant from the finished production.

Recreation Association President

Recreation Association

NO SCHOOL COULD BE ENTIRELY SUCCESSFUL without an active recreation program, and W. C. is proud of its Recreation Association which boasts "A sport for every girl and a girl for every sport." Working to provide an all-round program for the campus are student coaches, club presidents, and cabinet members who have made "Play with the R. A. today and every day" alive in the spirit of every student. Hallball, which was created here at W. C., initiates the girls in dorm competition early in the fall. Volleyball, basketball, softball—from the first thrilling game the girls participate with a maximum amount of enthusiasm. Hardly a day passes that our newly renovated tennis courts are not filled with aspiring "Little Mos." Saturdays find the bowling alleys, the Hobby Shop, the game room, and the terrace skating rink crowded with girls taking advantage of these recreational activities.

For the winter season, basketball reigns supreme and the Co-Of Club busies itself with scheduling games. Again dorm competition becomes the byword. Necessary to R. A.'s uniformity is its club activity. These groups terminate the year with performances which display the various skills for the entire campus. The Dolphin-Seal Club, with its Spring Water Pageant, features synchronized swimming in water ballets, stunts, and diving exhibitions. The Golf Club, Promenaders, Tap Dance Club, Co-Of, Fencing, Life Saving, Camp Counselors, and Modern Dance groups are all a part of the complex web of R. A.

A Play Day is observed once a year on campus as the Recreation Association acts as hostess to various high schools and colleges which arrive bringing skills in different fields of athletics. Warm spring days remind the girls of R. A. Camp, "A-Hut-for-Fun," located off-campus which offers an excellent place for dorm picnics and relaxing week-end outings. Honors are not forgotten either as the annual Spring Banquet is held. At this time the outstanding Senior Physical Education major and non-major along with the Honor Group composed of girls rating high in service, interest, sportsmanship, and attitude are recognized. The Recreation Association plays a vital role in life at Woman's College.

Harriet Elliott Social Science Forum

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL HARRIET ELLIOTT SOCIAL SCIENCE FORUM presented an analytical discussion on Forces Underlying International Tensions November 18 and 19. The guest panelists were Dana Adams Schmidt, an international correspondent, Klaus Knorr, an international economist, Margaret Meade, an anthropologist, and Leonard Cottrell, a social psychologist, who showed the ways in which the understanding and techniques emerging from the social sciences are being applied to reduce international tension. Discussions were focused on ideological conflict, economic pressures, and underlying differences in national character.

Louise Merz, student chairman of the Forum committee, and Dr. Lyda Gordon Shivers, faculty chairman, headed the Social Science Forum Committee in planning the various events that were to take place.

The Social Science Forum is held in honor of Dean Harriet Elliott, and endeavors to stimulate interest in international affairs and give the students a chance to hear experts in the field of the social sciences.

Panel discussion for the Woman's College Inter-Faith Forum.

Inter-Faith Forum

"THE SIGNIFICANCE OF RELIGION IN HUMAN AFFAIRS" was the theme of the Inter-Faith Forum on February seventeenth and eighteenth, 1955. There were two major addresses: (1) "The Significance of Religion in Intellectual Life" concerning freedom of intellectual inquiry and the relationship of religion to scientific and technological advances and (2) "The Significance of Religion in Life Values" concerning our national traditions, politics, and concepts of government as affected by religious concerns and influences. Between the two addresses a panel discussion was held to discuss "The Significance of Religion in the Heritage We All Share." The panel consisted of faculty members and some interesting speakers.

There were eleven committees that worked hard to have a good Inter-Faith Forum. They planned exhibits, religious group supper meetings, and dorm discussions led by faculty members and ministers. The steering committee consisted of Dr. Hollis Rogers, Dr. Franklin Parker, Dr. Godfrey, Lela Morris, Barbara Dunn, Anne Misenheimer, Dot Obropta, Mrs. Ruth Clarke, and Margie Leder.

The Inter-Faith Forum is one of the main projects of the Inter-Faith Council. The problem they set up this year was how we can relate religion to other fields of knowledge and action—science, history, politics—in such a way as to establish values by which we may lead meaningful, purposeful lives.

Arts Festival

Peter Taylor

The 12th annual Arts Festival was held in the Spring Semester under the direction of the Fine Arts Department. The Festival opened with a dance program participated in by 12 schools. The program came to a climax with the presentation of Jose Limon and his company of dancers.

Robert Sessions, contemporary composer, was the guest artist for the music portion of the Festival. He gave two lectures and reviewed student work. A program of contemporary chamber music was presented by Robert Help, a guest pianist.

The writing portion of the festival included an evaluation and review of student works by Peter Taylor, Flannery O'Conner, Randall Jarrell, and Robie Macauley. Robert Frost was a guest of the school and read his works plus other works to the student body.

Flannery O'Conner

Robert Frost

Robie Macauley

The Drama Department was fortunate to have the Piedmont District Festival of the Carolina Drama Festival held on the Woman's College campus. Federico Garcia Lorca's magnificent play, The House of Bernarda Alba was presented by the Students' Theatre.

The Art Department program consisted of a series of contemporary films shown over a period of time. They included new ideas in art films, documentary, foreign films, and cartoons.

The Arts Festival has accomplished its purpose in that the students have penetrated farther into the creative and cultural aspects of life.

Woman's College Choir

OUR COLLEGE CHOIR adds a great deal of enjoyment to our college life. It is made up of one hundred and sixty girls from all classes, and this group, under the direction of Mr. George Thompson, provides special music on various occasions throughout the year: assembly, Founder's Day, University Sermons, Arts Forum, and graduation. The choir also appeared on the opening program of WUNC-TV in January of this year.

Besides furnishing the music for these programs, however, the choir gives two concerts each year, one at Easter and another at Christmas. There is always a feeling of anticipation and excitement about this Christmas concert, for with this performance, the season officially opens for most of the campus. On a stage filled with tall white Christmas trees contrasting with a bank of bright red poinsettias, the choir, in their red and white robes, sing again the seasonal music to an audience filling Aycock to its top row.

Each spring, the college choir holds an election of new officers to serve for the following year, and these officers assume a great part of the responsibility of the organization. The officers for the year, 1954-1955, are: President, Patty Warlick; Vice-President, Rachel Warlick; Secretary, Chris Velonis; Treasurer, Harriet Harris.

We, the college choir, are proud of our organization and proud of the great service it renders to the college.

GEORGE M. THOMPSON
Director

Greensboro Symphony Orchestra

THE CITY OF GREENSBORO and the Woman's College campus are fortunate in having a symphony orchestra of the calibre of the Greensboro Symphony. Few cities of this size in the United States can claim that distinction. Capable musicians from the community, the faculty, and members of the student body perform under the direction of George Dickieson, conductor, and with the assistance of Leonard Samuels, Concertmaster. In January of the 1954-1955 season, the Symphony presented a concert, with Elizabeth Cowling of the college faculty, 'cello soloist. At graduation each year the orchestra presents a concert in conjunction with the College Choir.

THE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA consists entirely of student musicians selected from the Woman's College. This group, most of whom are in the Greensboro Symphony, is also led by George Dickieson. The chamber musicians, less than twenty in number, specialize in the large chamber music works of both classic and contemporary types.

Students in the Music Department have the opportunity to gain experience in conducting, and to hear music they have orchestrated performed. This ensemble of string and woodwind players are often in demand to play for organizations which are visiting the campus, as well as before groups in Greensboro and neighboring towns.

Outstanding Seniors . . . 1955

THE OUTSTANDING EIGHT, chosen because of their ability to personify the ideals and attitudes of the student body as it would be, are selected in their senior year. They have proven themselves worthy of the trust that the students put in them, and they were selected because of the respect we have for them and the gratitude we owe them as true leaders of a democracy which they helped to strengthen.

Your 1955 Pine Needles

And How It Came From Our Hands To Yours . . .

. . . May, 1954 . . . school elections were over and we would not only have new Student Government officers, but we'd also have a new year to look forward to. When it was over we would still remember it, and prove those tales we told, about "Hazel," Coraddi, our very own T.V. station, practice teaching, the grueling nights of study, dates, dances, those funny looking "Rats," job-seeking Seniors, and the Christmas diamond display, for we would have a lasting reflection of the academic year, 1954-1955 in our Pine Needles.

June, 1954 . . . it all began in March, and on the last day of June Suzanne turned in a miniature of the book you have now. What would the artist in Charlotte do with this little book, sketched, planned, and lived for so many long hours? Would it ever really be a yearbook?

August rolled around and Joan and Suzanne drove to Charlotte to see what had happened and to make any corrections necessary. It looked as if our dream would come true. Mr. Coursey, the engraver, and Mac Cannon, the artist, had given us something big and beautiful to work with . . . the dummy, that huge oblong book that you've seen Suzanne and her staff members cradling as they trudged around campus with Mr. Martin.

MARY RUTH HART

September came and the time for some real work was upon us, but first we had to get some new people on our staffs. Rudi, our Business Manager, had a meeting for new members. Soon after tryouts, Rudi and the girls were pounding the streets of Greensboro for subscribers to advertisements. Next came Finance Board—they appropriate our money. The four dollars that you pay doesn't begin to cover the cost of your yearbook.

When Suzanne opened the literary staff for new members, she had so many experienced people to try out that it was difficult to choose between them. Everyone had a position on the staff, but from these she chose Sandy Seigel for Freshman Editor and Sybil Dickstein for Commercial Editor.

There were pictures to be taken, words to be written, art work to be done—a lot of work, but it seemed to magnify when Coursey and Mr. Fleming were finished with us. We planned, re-planned, and re-re-planned. Endless hours were spent taking pictures that turned out beautifully—the only thing wrong was that they were horizontals and we needed verticals!! Then there was the Outstanding Senior who had her eyes closed and that huge group of girls—no one could identify them.

Remember registration day when Juniors and Seniors made their picture appointments?—what a time we had making arrangements for that—and you didn't show up for yours until three days after it was scheduled! Thought Gloria would never get enough girls to stay down in the basement of the Alumnae House to type all day, but somehow she managed. Mr. Golden left and we waited anxiously for everyone to send her proofs in so that we would soon receive our glossies; then Joan and Landy could go on with the Senior and Junior sections. (We found out in January that some girls still had their proofs, but we fooled them—Colonna Studios sent us one anyway.) When they finally arrived we were much amazed to find out that half of these girls went to G. C. . . . "Wonder where our girls are??"

Poor Huff! She got all the odd jobs—and she had to sit in on all those sessions with Coursey and Suzanne. (By now you must think that Price Coursey is a real brute—never satisfied with the plates that you have ready—he always wants more. He usually gets them, especially when a thick juicy steak is in the offing for the editor! He's always around to get us out of a tight squeeze—we couldn't do without him!)

Pictures. Captions. Copy. and . . .

October, November, and December was one long siege of picture-taking and more picture-taking. The class editors, Joan Clodfelter, Landy Brown, Martha Jordan, Sandy Seigel, and Sybil Dickstein worked long and hard alphabetizing their respective classes and getting photographs marked and packaged for the engraver. We made our first deadline, believe it or not! By December Mr. Martin and all the staff members were more than glad for Woman's College to begin their Christmas holidays.

After Christmas, the worst part came. All interest in everything but diamonds died with January. No one wanted to work and no one wanted to have his picture taken! It was like pulling teeth to get a photograph. Anne White, the Organizations Editor, was well entrenched in her job of taking pictures of the thousand-and-one clubs, societies, associations, and organizations on campus. With the help of Dottie Parrish, this job progressed in spite of the many obstacles that stood in their way. If only Phi Beta Kappa would come out with their selections before April! After all, our very last deadline is March 15! And then there were the Organization Presidents. This job fell to Suzanne and it took an age to find out just who these people were and another age to get their pictures from Colombia.

February rolled around and the pressure made its way to Carolyn Falls and her literary staff . . . so many, many words and so many spaces to fill! "Where's the copy for the Senior Class and how about those captions?? Aren't you ever going to write those captions???" could be heard echoing down the hall from Suzanne's room to Fall's. Many nights were spent eking out words. If there was any possible way to get ten words out of one, we did it. And don't ever let anyone tell you that Fall's isn't the bestest word-stretcher on campus! (Here, we'd like to add our thanks to those organizations responsible for their own write-ups.)

Poor Gloria Weaver . . . she and her typing staff had tons of copy to finish up. But meeting together in the Pine Needles office helped to add a little cheer to just plain typing.

No one could have ever done a better job than our Art Staff under the capable direction of Ellen Kjosnes. Her's is the only Staff in the history of Pine Needles to ever hand in their completed work before their deadline! Roses to you, Ellen, Sunni, and Ann.

March and April dragged themselves in and all the work that no one else wanted to do was left to the Editor and the Assistant Editor. The lights

in 325 Weil, where Suzanne hung her hat, could be seen burning into the wee hours. Her constant comment was, "Do you realize that I haven't played bridge once this year!!!" Huff, Martha, Landy, Joan, and Sarah helped compile the Student Directory—2,400 names and addresses!

May, 1955. It's all over but the shouting—every picture taken, every word written, and every proof checked. It took fourteen months to do it, but every member of the staff is mighty proud to present you your black-and-gold-bound volume of the 1955 Pine Needles!

ART STAFF: Ann Brown; Sunni Harmon; Ellen Kjosnes, Art Editor.

Hats off . . . to these Indispensable Ones!

Without them we could have never published
your 1955 PINE NEEDLES!

Mr. Price Coursey and Mr. Frank M. Fleming

To MR. PRICE COURSEY, our faithful engraver, advisor, and constant helper from Charlotte Engraving Company . . . he guided us when no one else could. To MR. FRANK FLEMING, our soft-voiced and congenial printer from Lassiter Corporation in Charlotte . . . he waited so patiently and produced so beautifully. To MR. CARROLL MARTIN, our photographer from Martin Studios in Greensboro . . . he gave us his genius in photography for endless hours and never once complained of rainy weather, tardy subjects, or just waiting for the right moment to snap the picture. To MR. JERRY GOLDEN, our portrait photographer from Colonna Studios in New York . . . he was here when fall forgot to come. To MR. ALBERT A. WILKINSON of the Woman's College News Bureau . . . always willing to take a last minute picture or to let us rummage through his files. To MRS. MAY ADAMS . . . she helped us with our finances, budgets, and in any other way that she possibly could. To the entire STUDENT BODY . . . they were our subjects. To the FACULTY . . . they let us interrupt their classes to get that all-important picture. To the BUSINESS MEN of Greensboro and surrounding areas . . . they advertised in our book. And last, but certainly not least, to the MEMBERS of the PINE NEEDLES STAFF . . . we extend our sincere appreciation for helping us make the 1955 PINE NEEDLES the best yearbook ever!
