Mr. Collins

Although we think primarily of Dr. Ruth Collings in her capacity as a doctor, she has been active in many phases of campus life since she first came to the Woman's College 37 years ago. Friendly, enthusiastic, interested in the individual, and always willing to listen, she has gained the respect of the student body. To her we give our thanks and dedicate the 1962 Pine Needles.

D E D I C A T I O N

have elapsed in the history of the Woman's College. With the passing of years, and with new events capturing interests every year, dust has collected on the records of the college as it was when it was founded. Being involved in events of current interest students of each generation have lived actively in their own present — forming a rich history for our college.

With the advent of the seventieth anniversary a curiosity for the past and a nostalgia has inspired the staff of the 1962 Pine Needles to dust off the old records and photographs and compare them with Woman's College as it is today.

WILLIAM C. FRIDAY, President of the University of North Carolina

Woman's College began its seventieth year with a new chancellor. Dr. Otis Singletary resigned his position as Professor of History and Assistant to the President at the University of Texas to accept the Chancellorship at the Woman's College. In his address to the student assembly in October, Dr. Singletary won the vote of confidence which has not ceased to be renewed as the students get to know him better. He has also distinguished himself throughout the State of North Carolina. We are confident that the success of Dr. Singletary's first year with us will continue through what is bound to be a long career as Chancellor of the Woman's College.

CLASSES

Students seek unity. In the early days they found it within the small institution as a whole. Now classes serve the purpose, and everything that goes with them — jackets and rings — feeling of belonging — identification.

Seniors — at last! Our college days are ended in reality but in memory they will remain always. This, our Senior year, has brought with it many eventful experiences — student teaching, interviews, wedding plans, the senior ball, and graduation. As we leave these experiences behind us, we do so with pride — proud that we have been a part of this the 1962 class of Woman's College.

CLASS OF 1962

JOY SUE JOINES
President

PATSY GRIFFIN
Vice-President

CLASS OF 1963

Juniors . . . Big Sisters with class rings . . . actresses, producers, crews in the Junior Show . . . students entering major courses . . . campus leaders of the year to come.

ELIZABETH RIPLEY
Secretary

KIT LOWE
Cheerleader

ILA JEAN WIDENHOUSE
Treasurer

All to the center now . . . one, two!

Meanwhile, back at the ranch . . .

I say there, "Is that a MALE I see?"

The meeting will come to (dis?) order!

you see, the binomial theorem states that $\sqrt{4 - 3x}$ = the probability of . . .

We like them. We like them real well.

Meeting of the minds! . . . i.e., Junior Show.

Easiest way I know to get from third floor to first!

CLASS OF 1964

Almost halfway there: Upperclassmen dorms with sinks in our rooms . . . At last the jackets arrived . . . Rat Day followed soon . . . Evidence of the "Sophomore Slump" . . . Big decision about a major . . . Unlimited dating nights but limited chances . . . Parent's weekend . . . The exodus to UNC . . . The Class of '64 will return again!

ANN ESKRIDGE, Treasurer

HANNAH WHITE, President

JUDY SANFORD, Cheerleader

"We're the Class of '64..."

Sophomore slump!

"MY CIRCLE PIN!!!!!"

No man's land!

"Pass the champagne and have some more caviar!"

Another Fall . . . another year . . .

Could it be that the soda-jerk is snowed?

CLASS OF 1965

September 7, 1961, and we, the Class of '65 embarked on an adventure. Our junior advisors walked us for miles; our house presidents explained rules; we danced at Chapel Hill. Registration was bewildering but we managed to live through it. Our sister class presented a party; the sophomores had one, too — "Rat Day." Vacation and exams flew by. Second semester brought with it "Diary of Rat Day" for the sophomores and the freshman formal. We turned our minds to next year when we become upperclassmen at wonderful W. C.

COURT OF SOCIAL REGULATIONS

JANNETTE BIVENS, Executive Secretary

The Court of Social Regulations tempers understanding, concern, and respect for the individual as it considers major social offenses on the campus.

Inherent in its philosophy is the belief in the ability and desire of the individual to accept responsibility, as it entrusts to each the standards of the college.

A part of the Student Government judicial system, the Court of Social Regulations is composed of the Judicial Chairman, the Executive Secretary, and a faculty advisor. The Judicial Chairman and the Executive Secretary are elected officers who, in consultation with the President of S.G.A., appoint the eight voting members and the recording secretary. The court elects the faculty advisor of its choice. Court members serve also in an advisory capacity to hall boards in each dormitory.

It is the purpose of the judicial system to interpret and make policy and to this end the court works, yet only within the policy of honor, unique to this judicial system and to this campus.

THE HONOR COURT

The Honor Court is a branch of the Judicial System at the Woman's College which serves as an interpretative, punitive, and educational body. The Court handles all honor offenses and strives to perpetuate the highest ideals of honor on this campus.

The organization and membership of Honor Court are similar to the Court of Social Regulations. The Court members endeavor to help each student develop individual responsibility for herself and for her fellow students. This type of responsibility, evolving from personal honor, is the basis for the Woman's College Honor Policy. The Honor Policy was initiated here for betterment of the college community and as a part of of the college student's preparation for life as a responsible citizen.

JUDY BEALE, Executive Secretary

LEGISLATURE

A need for a law making body exists in any community. In the Woman's College community, Legislature has been established to fulfill this need.

The purpose of Legislature is for the students themselves to make laws and endorse policies according to the majority opinion of the students. This majority opinion is presented at Legislature meetings through the elected dorm representatives, each one of which represents fifty members in her dorm.

Legislature has such powers as creating committees, chartering organizations, making all rules and regulations, amending the by-laws of the constitution, and approving appointments. Legislature serves to direct attention to important issues both inside and outside the immediate college community.

President of C.U. Council

The Consolidated University Council of the University of North Carolina is a representative body for over 18,000 students. This non-governing body has no legislative authority other than over projects initiated by the Council. Its purpose is to offer social, educational, and cultural exchanges, to represent the opinion, interests, and welfare of the students, to act as a means of liaison between the student bodies of the Consolidated University and the administration of the Consolidated University, and to coordinate and initiate activities promoting more harmonious relations among the three student bodies of the Consolidated University of North Carolina. This has been accomplished through the annual C.U. Days at the respective schools, through exchange lectures and entertainment series and through studies and recommendations made concerning subjects such as Faculty Salaries.

NATIONAL STUDENT'S ASSOCIATION

GINNY SEAVER, Chairman

The goal of the National Student's Association is to create among students a concern with affairs that must be of interest to them as citizens of the world and to provide them means of expressing their interests to others of the world through the national organization.

The function of the National Student's Association Council is to create and bring to the students of the Woman's College opportunities which are means toward this goal of active citizenship.

SERVICE LEAGUE

The purpose of Service League is to provide service to the campus and the community. This year's Purse Drive contributed to three organizations, the foreign student's scholarship fund, the Greensboro Association for Retarded Children, and World University Service. The Drive centered mainly in a penny race between classes and a carnival sponsored by the dorms. The Christmas project, done in connection with the Greensboro Community Council, was the first time that Christmas families had been undertaken on a campus-wide basis.

Second semester brought a return of the Red Cross Bloodmobile and a revival of clothing drive.

The Inter-faith Council is organized for the purpose of promoting understanding, cooperation, and joint activity among the eleven denominational groups on campus. The Council is composed of the president and one representative from each religious group and the chairmen of the Inter-faith Vespers Board. These members encourage the active participation of the individual student through a series of lectures, discussion groups, and dormitory vespers. Assisted by their advisor, Dean Katherine Taylor, the Inter-faith Council has instituted, this year, a series of Inter-faith Faculty Lectures and has sponsored a lecture by Mr. Tom Driver of Union Theological Seminary on religious aspects of French drama.

ELLIOTT HALL

"It's happening in Elliott Hall . . ." This is a familiar answer to query concerning a wide variety of social and cultural events on Woman's College Campus. These events include popular weekly coffee breaks and combo dances, fashion shows, and art exhibits from around the world. In a college world of academic pressures and classroom-oriented thoughts, Elliott Hall is a welcome integration of cultural, social, and intellectual life. By maintaining an atmosphere of "living room of the campus," Elliott Hall has earned the very explanatory title of "The Lady." Her doors open to all students, faculty and guests with a multitude of services and pleasant opportunities for entertainment.

MARSHALS

Marshals are elected from their respective classes to serve at commencement exercises and at various functions which take place at Aycock Auditorium. Every spring twelve marshals are elected from the rising Junior class and eight from the rising Senior class. These girls serve until they graduate. The chief marshal, a rising senior, is elected by the student body from among the marshals elected the previous year.
